

PRESIDENT AND FIANCEE SEE ARMY DEFEAT NAVY

FATE OF "BLUE SKY LAW" IS IN HANDS OF A SPECIAL COURT

Cincinnati, Nov. 27.—There began here today what promises to be a great legal fight, the result of which will decide the fate of the so-called "Blue Sky Law," regulating the sale of securities in Ohio. Before United States Judges Warrington, Hollister and Sater, sitting as a special district court, the Geiger-Jones company of Cincinnati, appeared as plaintiff in an effort to restrain the state banking commissioner from revoking the company's license to do business in this state. A former attorney general of Ohio and the present attorney general appear as opposing counsel in the case.

Attorney General Turner appeared before the hearing began that he would offer in evidence a communication from the then governor of the state, James M. Cox, to the legislature requesting the passage of the "Blue Sky Bill," in which the governor stated that the bill was drawn by three men one of them Timothy Hogan, then attorney general of the state. Mr. Hogan, who in the present hearing is representing the Geiger-Jones company, said that he would state to the court that he knew nothing of the bill and did not take part in preparing it.

Mr. Hogan also said that the case will be fought out along the lines of the constitutionality of the "blue sky law."

Associated with Mr. Hogan in behalf of the Geiger-Jones company is W. D. Turner, of Cleveland and Assistant Attorney General Ballard is aiding his chief in the state's interest.

The attack on the law was on the ground that its provisions are contrary to the constitution of the United States in that it infringes upon the commerce, the due process and the human rights clauses. Decisions by federal courts in Michigan, Iowa and West Virginia declaring the "blue sky" laws of those states unconstitutional were cited. "It is an interesting question whether a state can protect its citizens from the sale of worthless securities," Presiding Judge Warrington declared.

Attorney W. O. Turner declared that the Ohio law gives too much discretionary power to the assistant state banking commissioner.

Attorney General Turner opened his argument with a plea for the widows and orphans who might lose their savings through purchase of worthless securities. "The present law," he declared, "was passed after it had been amended to meet the requirements of the previous federal decisions. I believe that it ought to be upheld."

FRENCH LOAN MAY REACH $4,000,000

Paris, Nov. 27.—Paul Leroy Beaulieu, the economist, estimated today that subscriptions to the new French loan may amount to 200,000,000 francs ($4,000,000). Of this amount perhaps one-half will be cash subscriptions, the remainder representing conversion into the new loan of earlier issues of treasury notes and national defense bonds.

New York, Nov. 27.—The American steamer Zealandia which was recently boarded and searched by British and men from the British cruiser Iris at Progresso, Mexico, arrived here today and reported and been pursued by an unknown cruiser off the New Jersey coast.

Captain Devantier said that at 11:30 o'clock last night when he was between Brigantine shoals and Tishers Beach a cruiser bore down on him and signalled with the Morse code. The night was unusually hazy and the Zealandia ran inside the three mile limit and thus escaped the cruiser.

NEW NOTE IS SENT TO GREECE

Athens, Greece, Nov. 27. (Via Paris).—The ministers representing the quadruple entente sent to the Greek government yesterday a new collective note outlining certain measures which the powers desire Greece to take in conformity with the preliminary agreement reached recently. Premier Skouloudis had a long conference with King Constantine after receiving the note. A cabinet meeting followed.

Twelve Men Are Entombed; Three Lost

Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 27.—Twelve men were entombed in a colliery of the Lehigh valley company today when an explosion of gas set the gangway afire. Nine were rescued alive but there is no hope for the other three. They are foreigners and were employed as laborers. The colliery is located near here.

WANTS AMERICAN WARSHIP AS AN ESCORT TO STEAMER

New York, Nov. 27.—The American Secretary Lansing to its request from Trans-Atlantic company, that an American warship be sent to Buenos Ayres to convey its steamer Winnebago to this port under suspicion of German ownership and save her from capture by British cruisers.

OVER 100,000 SERBS TAKEN

Berlin, (Nov. 27.—(Wireless to Sayville).—The number of Serbian prisoners taken up to the present time by the German-Austro-Hungarian and Bulgarian troops," says the Overseas News Agency, is 101,000 officers and men. The invading forces also have rescued 2,000 Austro-Hungarians who had been made prisoners by the Serbians, but later abandoned during the hasty retreat of King Peter's forces.

"With the capture of the Serbian towns of Mitrovitz and Pristina," The news agency adds: "The last section of the railroad from Oskup to Mitrovitz was wrested from the Serbians."

ONE DEAD AND 4 MISSING, TOLL OF A BOAT FIRE

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 27.—One person is dead and four are missing of the 88 people known to have been on board the steamer Tivoli, which was burned last night on Chesapeake Bay, near Annapolis.

Mrs. Eva Bowden, a passenger who was ill, died on a life raft shortly after leaving the steamer. The missing are two children of Captain Howard, commander of the Tivoli and two of the crew. It is thought they may have been taken aboard a tug which aided in the rescue work and proceeded to Cape Charles.

CADETS TRIUMPH OVER MIDSHIPMEN BY SCORE OF 14-0

Polo Grounds, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Before President Wilson, his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, and a large crowd the Army triumphed over the Navy in the annual football struggle by a score of 14 to 0.

New York, N. Y., Nov. 27.—President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, arrived at the Polo grounds at 1 p. m. today to witness the Army-Navy football game. Automobiles were in waiting and the president and his guests were driven direct to the Polo grounds in Upper New York.

President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, and their party drove onto the field in automobiles at 1:45 p. m. The president and his party took boxes directly in front of the Navy cheering section. A light drizzle, which alternately threatened to stop or turn into heavy rain, was then falling.

Tarpaulins were the order of the day when the advance guard of spectators at the Army-Navy football game moved on the Polo grounds. A steady drizzle had been falling for more than two hours when the first of the crowd entered the stands.

The Game
The Army scored a touchdown and goal within a few minutes after the annual football game with the Navy started today, making the score 7 to 0. The Annapolis men fumbled on it's ten yard line, and West Pointers recovered the ball. Oliphant, former Purdue star, then smashed through the line for a touchdown and kicked goal. The game was played in a drizzle. Score at first period: Army, 7; Navy, 0.

During the first half the two eleven were surprisingly well matched, so far as defensive play was concerned. The cadets showed a stronger offense and a better conceived attack. Their gains greatly exceeded those made by the Midshipmen in forward passing.

The Army was quick to strike when Craig's fumble of Collin's punt gave the soldiers the ball close to the Midshipmen's goal line. With the exception of this break in the play, the game was evenly contested, neither eleven uncovering an offensive sufficiently strong to enable them to batter through for further scoring. Score end of second period: Army, 7; Navy, 0.

At the end of the first half President Wilson, Mrs. Galt and his party including Secretary Garrison, Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, Miss Margaret Wilson, Miss Helen Woodrow House, the president's cousin, Col. W. Harris, his military aide and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, his naval aide and physician went to a box in the other part of the stand. As the president and his party left the navy stood the midshipmen's hand played the Star Spangled Banner and the regiment of midshipmen stood at attention with their hats off.

There was no scoring during the second period but in the third Oliphant again broke through the Navy's forwards and dodging the sailor backfield, scored an easy touchdown for West Point. (Continued On Page Six)

APPROVAL OF OVERSEAS TRUST IS REFUSED BY AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Great Britain has informally asked the United States if it would unofficially approve the American Overseas Trust, and the state department has replied that under no circumstances could any sanction be given to an organization which would receive preferential treatment over other American ships.

Sweden also has made a marine inquiry and has been advised that the plan had not been embodied. It developed that part of the plan of the trust was to organize subsidiaries in neutral countries and that a measure of supervision was to be given to the British government by permitting access to the books of the concern in neutral countries. Sweden informed Great Britain that she would not approve such a plan.

State department officials declared today that the Overseas Trust organizers now realize they could not hope to get moral assistance from the American government so long as the plan contemplated preferential treatment for one set of American shippers as against others.

Three Casualties When U. S. Troops Feel Mexican Fire

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—The official report to the war department on the Nogales affair received today from Major General Funston, transmitting the substance of a report from the commanding officer at Nogales, follows:

"In the action of November 26, no shots were fired by us except in return on Mexican fire. This applies to both Villistas and the advance Carranza troops under Colonel Cardenas, who opened fire on the troops of the Tenth Cavalry under Captain Valentine and Company L, Twelfth Infantry.

"The latter company had three casualties. Private Little, mortally wounded, in head, died at 9 o'clock last night. Private Cates, flesh wound in abdomen. Private Saupe wounded in ankle. The two latter will recover."

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 27.—General Alvarez Obregon, whose Carranza forces occupied Nogales, Sonora, yesterday after snipers had exchanged shots with the United States troops causing the death of one American and wounding two others, is preparing today to take the field in an effort to run down the remaining Villa soldiers who fled from the Mexican town.

Reports from across the border said General Dieguez, in command of the Carranza forces defending Hermosillo, capital of Sonora had sent soldiers northward from that city. General Obregon, it was said, hoped to corner the Villa soldiers by sending a column south from Nogales.

Early today a work train was dispatched from Mexican Nogales toward Hermosillo to repair the tracks damaged yesterday when the Villa garrison evacuated. This was followed by a military train filled with soldiers.

Herbert L. Cates, private of Company L Twelfth Infantry, seriously wounded in the abdomen in the fighting yesterday, rallied well today, after an operation last night. Surgeons said his recovery seemed probable.

FORD CALLS ON CARDINAL GIBBONS

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 27.—Henry Ford, the Detroit manufacturer, called upon Cardinal Gibbons today to pay his respects and outline his plans for his proposed peace commission to Europe.

The Cardinal devoutly echoed Mr. Ford's hopes for a successful culmination of the project by Christmas, but he was averse to giving it his formal approval. He said he felt there were too many formidable difficulties in the way to hope for its successful culmination. Mr. Ford asked Cardinal Gibbons to suggest names of prominent persons whose interest he thought could be enlisted, but the Cardinal said he preferred to leave that to Mr. Ford's own judgment.

Upon leaving the Cardinal, Mr. Ford said he was going to Philadelphia, where he had a dinner engagement with John Wanamaker.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 27.—Governor Miller has declined Henry Ford's invitation to accompany him to Europe on the proposed peace mission. The governor today telegraphed Mr. Ford that official duties would not warrant him leaving the state for such a long period.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 27.—Charles Edward Stafford, 61 years old, for many years prominently identified with the steel industry of the United States, died of apoplexy today at Haverford, Pa., near here.

NEW VERSES BY ROSEBERY'S DAUGHTER

Lady Sibyl Grant, the beautiful eldest daughter of Lord Rosebery, has just published a new volume of poems, her third, which is called "Dreams." Lady Sibyl inherits her father's literary gift, and everything she writes is graceful and distinguished. Her mother was the oldest daughter (and heiress) of Baron Meyer de Rothschild, and she, herself, is the eldest of four children, two sons and two daughters. Her sister being the Marchioness of Cromer.

In 1912 she was married to Capt. Charles Grant, of the famous Coldstream guards, a distinguished officer, who has been at the front with his regiment for a year and two months.

POPE WILL ASK TRUCE FOR XMAS

Rome, Nov. 27.—Although the efforts of Pope Benedict last year to obtain a truce among the warring powers during the Christmas day did not succeed it is reported on good authority that the Pope will make a similar attempt this year. He is said to have brought up this question during his conference with Cardinal Von Hartmann, archbishop of Cologne.

FREIGHT LINES ARE CHOKED

New York, Nov. 27.—The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, whose lines are choked as far back as Scranton with loaded freight cars it cannot move, today instructed its agents to accept no more freight for export until further notice.

GERMANS ADVANCE

Berlin, Nov. 27. (Via London).—German troops advancing in Serbia have occupied the heights on the left bank of the Sitnica river west of Pristina, German headquarters announce today. The Austrians are advancing southwest of Mitrovatsa. The capture of 2500 more Serbians is recorded.

TURKS GAIN

Constantinople, Nov. 27.—(Via London).—An announcement from the Turkish war office today says that a large number of soldiers of the allied forces have been killed in recent fighting on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

STEEL MAGNATE DEAD

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 27.—Charles Edward Stafford, 61 years old, for many years prominently identified with the steel industry of the United States, died of apoplexy today at Haverford, Pa., near here.

MAY FILE SUIT

St. Louis, Nov. 27.—B. F. Bush, receiver for the Missouri Pacific railroad, today was authorized to file suit in the federal district court here to recover from George Gould property, which the latter is said to hold in trust, provided Gould does not surrender the title to the property in thirty days.

Billy Butt In Times Weather Map

Those misguided folk who are going on Hen Ford's little peace junket to Europe will have the satisfaction of furnishing some much needed amusing entertainment to the folks across the water anyway. Speakin' o' preparedness, what d'ye reckon would a happened to old Admiral Noah if he hadn't been prepared? Here's a bit o' dope on tomorrow's weather:
Ohio—Probably cloudy tonight and Sunday, with rain and colder near Lake Erie tonight.
Kentucky—Fair tonight; Sunday partly cloudy and warmer.
West Virginia—Partly cloudy and colder tonight; Sunday fair.

WANTS DIVORCE FROM MAN WHO IS NOW IN WORKHOUSE

Alleging that her husband has repeatedly threatened to kill her and that she fears for her safety, Eureka Hill filed suit in common pleas court this morning, through her attorney, W. R. Sprague, for divorce from her husband, Charles H. Hill, at present confined in the Cincinnati workhouse on a plea of guilty to a charge of assault and battery.

Mrs. Hill complains that her husband has been guilty of extreme cruelty in that he cursed and abused her, called her vile and vulgar names, and threatened to kill her on several occasions.

She also seeks restoration to her maiden name of Eureka Lynch, and reasonable alimony. In her petition, she says that they were married at Ironton on August 11, 1913, and have no children.

Hill was indicted by the grand jury recently on two counts, pointing fire-arms, and shooting with intent to kill and wound. Upon his plea of guilty to assault and battery, the two indictments were nolleed. It was charged that he fired a shot gun at a group of boys in bathing near his house boat in the Ohio river at the Seistoville landing.

Hopes Women Will Adopt This Habit As Well As Men

Glass of hot water each morning helps us look and feel clean, sweet, fresh.

Happy, bright, alert—vigorous and vivacious—a good clear skin; a natural, rosy complexion and freedom from illness are assured only by clean, healthy blood. If only every woman and likewise every man could realize the wonders of the morning linole bath, what a gratifying change would take place.

Instead of the thousands of sickly, anaemic-looking men, women and girls with pasty or muddy complexions; instead of the multitudes of "nerve wrecks," "run-downs," "brain fags" and "poisonists" we should see a virile, optimistic throng of rosy-cheeked men everywhere.

An inside bath is had by drinking, each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of lime-salt phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour fermentations and poisons, thus cleansing, sweetening and freshening the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Those subject to sick headaches, biliousness, indigestion, rheumatism, colds and particularly those who have a pallid, sallow complexion and who are constipated very often, are urged to obtain a quarter pound of lime-salt phosphate at the drug store which will cost but a trifle but is sufficient to demonstrate the quick and remarkable change in both health and appearance attending those who practice internal sanitation. We must remember that inside cleanliness is more important than outside, because the skin does not absorb impurities to contaminate the blood, while the pores in the thirty feet of bowels

WANT TO CONVERT WILSON

New York, Nov. 27.—Officers of the congressional union for woman suffrage are wondering today how they can best make use of $1,000 contributed by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont for the express purpose of "converting" President Wilson to the support of a proposed suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. The congressional union has received a contribution of $100 to "convert" Elihu Root, who was one of their strongest opponents in the recent campaign in this state.

MR. JACOBS IS NAMED

Attorney Philip Jacobs was appointed in common pleas court this morning as guardian ad litem of Joseph Shakespeare, a minor defendant in a partition suit recently filed by Joseph Shakespeare, Sr.

MRS. D. BENNETT OF 1921 ROBINSON AV. ENDORSES TANLAC

Mrs. Bennett is one of the thousands of women who have received such remarkable benefit from the use of the "Master Medicine." "I began the Tanlac treatment on the strength of recommendations that were being made here in Portsmouth, and have found it equally as good as had been claimed for it. It improved my general health, and proved an excellent tonic."

Both women and men who suffer from imperfect digestion, who are nervous and irritable, lack energy, who suffer from headaches, dizziness, unsound sleep, poor circulation and stomach, liver and kidney disorders, will find Tanlac the most effective of remedies. Tanlac is an extract of herbs, roots and flowers, and through its wonderful cleansing powers and tonic effect it has given the best results in instances of catarrh and rheumatism.

Tanlac aptly called the "Master Medicine," is now on sale in Portsmouth at the Fisher & Striech Pharmacy, cor. Sixth and Chillicothe Sts., where representatives are meeting the public daily and courteously explaining Tanlac. Tanlac is sold in New Boston by the E. H. Coburn Drug Store.

The Brotherhood

Members of the Brotherhood Class for men at All Saints church ought to be present to a man at the Sunday morning meeting of the class for they will have the pleasure of hearing the Rev. E. J. Channey, of Columbus, one of the best read men on the Bible, in this part of the country, deliver his popular talk on "The Bible."

Visitors will be made heartily welcome. The class commences at 9:00 a. m. and meets in the rector's office on Fourth street, next the chapel. Sunday is also the first Sunday in the second year of the history of this popular class of men. Now is the chance for you fellows who got out of the way of attending the Brotherhood to get right back into harness. Begin the new year right. All adult men are eligible for membership of the Brotherhood whether members of the church or not.

Do You Feel Headachy? Look To Your Stomach It is an unusual thing for a druggist to sell medicine under a guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. Yet this is the way Wurster Bros., the popular druggists, are selling Mito-na, the standard dyspepsia remedy.

Never before have they had so large a number of customers tell them that a medicine has been successful as will Mito-na. Recent winter a few men who looked like walking skeletons have put on flesh and today are ruddy and vigorous with perfect digestion and good health.

There is no longer any need for anyone suffering or making their friends suffer on account of dyspepsia. Mito-na can always be relied upon. The percentage of cures is so great that there is little risk to Wurster Bros. in guaranteeing to return the money if the medicine does not relieve. And they stand ready to do so without any question.

Headaches, all forms of indigestion, nervousness, dizziness, drowsy feeling, poor sleep, ringing in the ears and all forms of liver trouble are helped by Mito-na. A few days' treatment should show considerable gain in health while a complete cure often follows rapidly.

These days are the best in the whole year for the enjoyment of good health; and Mito-na will put you in such perfect condition that you can enjoy every minute of them.

Athlete Praises Duffy's

Read what Duffy's did for Mr. James Kilroy:

"Last winter I had stomach trouble so bad that all I could eat was milk toast for two months straight. I tried all kinds of medicines and they all failed to do me any good. I went to several doctors, but got no results, until I was advised to get a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. After using one bottle I found great relief and got so I could eat a hearty meal of meat, potatoes, bread and tea, and now, believe me, I would not be without a bottle of Duffy's in the house. Since using it I have gained many pounds. Before I weighed but 125 pounds and today I weigh 154, am strong as a bull and do a hard day's work. I want to say that I owe all my thanks to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and want the world to know what it has done for me—it's a wonderful medicine." (Signed) James J. PLAN A PHYSICAL EXAMINATION DAY FOR CITY

DECEMBER 8 TO BE SET ASIDE FOR THIS VERY IMPORTANT WORK

In obedience to the wishes of the Public Health Education Committee, Physical Examination Day will be observed in Portsmouth on Wednesday, December 8.

An effort will be made to secure the use of the city council chamber for this meeting, which is probably the first of the kind ever held in the city.

If you have been ill and believe you should undergo a physical examination, you will be privileged to attend this meeting and undergo an examination absolutely free of charge.

Dr. O. W. Rober, who is the local representative of the Public Health Education Committee, announced Saturday that he had appointed Drs. William Schaefer, Frank H. Williams and W. W. Smith to take charge of this meeting.

"The day has been set aside as Physical Examination Day throughout Ohio," said Dr. William Schaefer, Saturday.

"It is designed to encourage people to call on a physician when they think they are ill or believe they are afflicted with some curable disease. Physicians in Ohio have heartily endorsed the movement and the rural districts are fearfully high.

PORTER CUT IN FACE; KNIFE USER MISSING

Loy Porter, 23, steel worker, of New Boston, will be disfigured for life as the result of a knife wound inflicted, it is claimed by "Pisen Bill" Kennedy, a local police character, this afternoon. The knife penetrated through the lower lip and extended to the base of the chin, requiring five stitches to close.

The attack occurred near the corner of Front and Market streets about 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, and according to Porter, was unprovoked. He told police officers that he and his brother Stanley, also a steel worker, were walking down Market street toward the river on their way to South Portsmouth to visit an aunt, Mrs. Anna Paulkner.

He says that Kennedy approached them and picked a quarrel with them, and later pulled out an old Barlow pocket knife and started to attack him. The knife-user struck wildly, the blade striking him in the face.

Kennedy then started after his brother Stanley, who hastily picked up a brick and threw at him, frightening him away. Kennedy then took to his heels and is still at large.

Bystanders assisted the victim to the second floor of the Biggs House, where his wound was dressed by Dr. W. E. Gault.

Officers Ray Moore and Joseph Stokley were on the scene in a hurry, and started at once in search of Kennedy, who is still at large.

The Porter brothers reside at 50 Gay street, New Boston, and are both employed in the sheet mill department of the Whitaker-Glessner plant. Their father, Landon Porter, is a timber man, and is now in Elliott county, Ky.

HALVOR GUNDERSON'S DOG

Or the Story of a Troubled Conscience

By JOHN C. WADE
Copyright by Frank A. Munsey Co.

Halvor Gunderson had first noticed the dog behind his wagon when he stopped to rest his team on the Steven hill.

On stock days farmers from twelve miles back in the hills brought dogs and calves to town, and strange dogs were plentiful along the main road.

When well out of the ridge he again glanced back to see that he was losing none of his purchases out of his dog's track and saw the dog still following. He now looked at it more carefully.

It was a large shepherd dog with a full chest, a long, slim body well above the ground and coarse tawny hair that was nearly black on the neck and back.

When he turned into the short by-road leading to his house he whistled to the dog, but the latter had already turned with the wagon and was evidently intending to follow it wherever it went.

When he went to supper he took the dog with him. Its previous owner must have allowed it the freedom of the house, for it displayed not the slightest curiosity, but went immediately back to the stove and lay down.

The next morning when Gunderson took the cows to the pasture the dog fulfilled all his expectations. He showed perhaps a trifle too much eagerness and ferocity in driving the cows.

The dog was always with him from morning until night—among the corn rows, in the hayfield, at milking time. No matter where he went or what he was doing, it was always near by and always seemed to be looking at him.

There was a haunting familiarity about the dog's gaze, but Halvor could not place it.

Halvor watched the dog very carefully all summer, never allowing him off the farm if possible. One October morning, however, he escaped his vigilance and followed him halfway to the cheese factory before Halvor noticed him.

He was too far on the road to be sent back, so was allowed to continue. At one of the houses on the highway to the factory was kept a dog, a hound, that Halvor disliked very much. This dog would rush out furiously at all teams, baying noisily, but always keeping out of reach of the whip. Today, as usual, he came running across the fields, but when he saw the shepherd dog he turned toward him with unabated speed, his head low and tongue lolling.

The shepherd evaded the rush and slashed him in the shoulder as he passed. The hound turned to rush again, but the shepherd met him before he could even start, tearing him about the head and neck with quick, wolflike snaps.

The aggressor tried to fight back, but could not get an opening, and in a few seconds the shepherd had carried him off his feet and was trying for his throat. The hound was a powerful brute and was up again in an instant, but he had apparently abandoned all thought of fighting, for he started back across the field toward the house, even faster than he had come.

The shepherd followed him a short distance and then returned to the wagon. Halvor was mildly pleased with the discomfiture of the hound and the splendid fighting qualities displayed by his dog. His sheep would surely be safe with such a guardian.

Gunderson had been worrying considerably about them lately, for the sheep-raising farmers in the hills north of his place had been having their flocks depleted the entire fall by a sheep-killing dog.

Late in October Mrs. Gunderson received a letter from the small fishing village of Hallesberg, which is on a fjord in northern Norway. The writer, Mrs. Gunderson's sister, among other things, said that Johann Jorgenson had left the previous spring for America, and she had heard that he had rented a farm near Seaton, Wis.

Halvor thought of the last time that he and Johann had spoken to each other on the beach at Hallesberg, twelve years ago, when Johann said that he would settle his account with him if it took a lifetime. Seaton was but twenty-five miles north of Gunderson's place, and in this country of easy communication he would soon learn of him.

As the days went by Halvor brooded more and more over this disconcerting news. He watched all passing teams with feverish anxiety. Naturally of a morbid temperament, he gradually grew more sullen and morose. His horses and cattle felt the effect of this change and shunned him even more than before.

One cold November morning several of the cows had got out of the barn lot and wandered across the creek. The bridge was but a few hundred yards away, but Halvor ordered the dog across the stream after them.

The shepherd went to the edge of the key water, but refused to go farther. He ordered him in again and again and finally, furious at his refusal, picked up a pitchfork handle and bit the dog between the eyes, knocking him down.

The animal was on his feet in an instant and with a snarl of rage sprang furiously at his master's throat. Halvor again swung the handle, this time blindly; but, fortunately for him, he again hit the dog in the forehead and with such force as to stun him for several seconds.

The shepherd finally got up, shook himself and walked slowly away. Halvor leaped against a fencepost, feeling a trifle weak, not so much from fear of the dog as from the look in his eyes when he sprang at him.

Twelve years before, on the beach at Hallesberg, he had faced such a look from Johann Jorgenson, who fiercely struggled to free himself from the man who held him that he might again attack Halvor, whom he accused of refusing, though in a boat near by, to heed the cries of himself, his father and brother when they had been run down in their heavily loaded fishing boat the night before in a storm by a torrid steamer coming up the fjord.

One night as Halvor was coming down the valley road from a small town about six miles north of his farm he saw in the moonlight against the snow a dark form running swiftly through the trees along the hillside above him. It had the gait and appearance of a gigantic wolf, but he instinctively knew it to be his dog. He whistled and called, but it neither slackened its speed nor looked around. In a few minutes it had disappeared over the ridge.

He thought of his grandmother's tales of the werewolf, the man wolf, who could change from man to wolf at will. He had been thinking of these tales often lately. Her stories of werewolves, the storm wind and sea trolls had never so impressed his childish mind as these.

When told on a stormy December night in half-whispers, the low room lighted only by the open fire, the sun raging on the shore before the house, the wind moaning through the trees on the mountain side behind, he could vividly see the werewolf—the man in the wolf form—slinking along the edge of the forest and watching the village for his enemies.

He had all the ferocity of a wolf and the cunning of a man. He was the "hunter who never fails." Halvor knew his American neighbors with their automobiles and telephones would laugh at such an idea, but he had been raised by the sea and had all the superstition of a seafaring people deeply implanted in him.

The refusal of the dog to eat fish confirmed his fears.

Johnsen Jorgenson would never eat fish, explaining laughingly that as he spent about sixteen hours a day with them it was too much like eating his friends.

Halvor now found it necessary to watch the dog all the time; he never turned his back to him for an instant.

As week after week went by the strain showed in his appearance—gray began to appear in his hair, his face became more haggard.

One gray January afternoon he was chopping on a hillside, with the dog sitting in the snow a short distance away, watching him.

He was wondering how much longer he could continue under the present state of affairs. He must end it some way. Perhaps one of his neighbors could be persuaded on some pretext to attempt to shoot the dog.

The idea appealed to him; he thought it over carefully. He became so engrossed with it that he forgot for some minutes to look up. Just as the large red oak that he was chopping was about to fall he raised his eyes and saw the dog was not in view.

Glancing fearfully over his shoulder, he saw that which he had so long expected to see—the dog within a few feet of his back!

With a startled cry he sprang forward, but in so doing slipped on the icy hillside and tumbled directly under the falling tree.

When he was found many hours later by the party of neighbors with lanterns, who had been summoned by his wife, he was pinned fast under the tree trunk and had apparently been dead for hours.

His dog was shot that same night while attempting to enter a sheepfold. A farmer living some miles north of Gunderson's identified the dog as one that he had formerly owned and that had run away the previous spring after having been whipped for worrying sheep.

Mistake In Ad

By the misplacing of one line in the big display advertisement of Hansen Bros. furniture store, that appeared in Friday evening's Times, the wording concerning the sale of Italian statuary was so badly mixed up that it could not be understood. Hansen Bros., whose store is rapidly gaining favor, secured some splendid Italian Novelties and placed the same on sale today at exceedingly tempting prices. The assortment is one of the best ever seen in the city, and any piece would make a most desirable Christmas present. The statuary comes in various heights and prices and must be seen to be fully appreciated.

CLAIM TO HAVE EVIDENCE SPRAGUE IS A BIGAMIST

Since the arrest and conviction of Stephen Sprague on a charge of abandonment and non-support, evidence has come to the county authorities tending to prove that Sprague is a bigamist. Reliable information has been received by Sheriff Smith and Probate Judge Beatty that Sprague has a wife and two children living in Johnson City, Tenn., and another wife in Zanesville, O. His first wife and two children reside on Fourth street, this city.

Sprague will be made to serve his sentence of one year in the Cincinnati workhouse and a fine of $500 before the charge of bigamy is preferred against him. During his incarceration in the workhouse his wife in this city will receive about $10 a month from that institution. The authorities also claim that Sprague alienated the affections of the wife of a well-known New Boston young man during the few weeks prior to his arrest.

Messrs. Walter Bierley and James Yeley of the well known firm of Bierley and Yeley, Saturday purchased lots in the Ramson addition facing the Scioto Trail just north of the city and will erect five bungalows on them, work on the new homes to be started within two or three weeks.

The deals were closed by H. A. Bierley.

SINGERS URGED TO ATTEND

All members of the choir of All Saints' church, and all who have at any time been members, are reminded that one of the indispensable adjuncts to a successful mission is good singing by a large chorus choir and are urged to attend as many of the week-night meetings as possible. The services commence at 7:30 p. m. sharp, and members of the choir should be in the chapel not later than 7:15 p. m. each evening. The music used will be such as all are familiar with and will consist for the most part of well known hymns.

Principals In Cutting Affray Given Hearing; Bound Over

Mike Miller and George Gruenwald and Gruber on the charges here, the two foreigners who were principals in a cutting and shooting affray in a railroad construction camp about two weeks ago near Sciotoville, were arraigned before Judge Byron this afternoon. Miller was arraigned on a charge of cutting with intent to kill. Gruenwald and Gruber on the charges of carrying concealed weapons and shooting with intent to wound. They waived examination, and were bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each. They were unable to furnish bond, and were remanded to jail. Both men were slightly wounded during the altercation.

Will Regulate Sale Of Liquor In Norway

Christiania, Norway, Nov. 27. A bill restricting and regulating the sale of liquor has been prepared by a government committee, and as it has the support of two-thirds of the members of the newly elected Norwegian parliament, it will soon be enacted into law.

Total prohibition has been projected by the committee as impossible to enforce, and detrimental to real temperance. But it is felt that the sale of strong liquors should be strictly controlled. Beer containing less than three per cent of alcohol is regarded not only as a harmless but a beneficial drink. Light wines will also be favored. The strong drinks will be dealt with according to their relation with the grosser forms of drinking.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Rub Soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Oil Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "trouble spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs' Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, removes stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs' Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Trading today called for no specific comment except for the weakness of such widely separated issues as New Haven and American Tobacco and further manipulation in shares like General Motors, Cuban-American sugar and Allis Chalmers preferred which scored new high prices. New Haven fell 1 3/8 to 72 3/8 and tobacco dropped 12 to 216 on the largest turnover of many weeks. Representative stocks were more or less neglected and war specialties moved within relatively narrow limits, some up and others down. U. S. Steel was supplanted as the most active stock by Inspiration copper, with strength in other minor metals. The closing was irregular.

Bonds were steady. Specialties were again the only features of interest on the resumption of trading today, rails and other standard shares recording no changes of note. Cuban-American sugar added 7 points to its recent high record at 153. Sears-Roebuck rose 3/4 to 170 1/4 and American Can, Lackawanna Steel, Texas Company and Baldwin Locomotive were about a point better. United States Steel and some other coppers were fractionally higher while Guggenheim, Marine preferred and American Tobacco were 1 to 2 points under. Can soon lost its rise and the list in general became more uneventful. News Haven fell a fraction under its low price at 75 3/8.

CHICAGO GRAIN
Chicago, Nov. 27.—Wheat prices took an upward turn today, influenced somewhat by gossip that numerous export inquiries were being made close to a working basis. Liverpool advices that offerings from Australia and Argentina were disappointingly small and that vessel rates from both countries were difficult to meet, counted also in favor of the bulls. On the other hand, liberal receipts northwest tended to act as an offset. Opening prices which ranged from a shade to 1/2 higher were followed by slight additional gains.

Notice of an embargo at Baltimore against shipments from Buffalo led afterwards to a reaction. The close was weak at the same as yesterday's finish to 1/4 lower with December 103 1/2 and May 109 1/2.

Corn underwent a setback owing to cessation of the recent active demand. Commission houses were generally on the selling side. After opening 1/2 to 3/4 lower, the market continued to sag.

The market later showed no power to effect any important rally. Closing prices were unsettled at 1/2 to 1 to net decline.

Oats held relatively steady as a result of buying orders from the seaboard. Trade, though, was only of fair volume.

Absence of selling pressure appeared to be chiefly responsible for a rise in provisions. Lower quotations on hogs were ignored.

PRESIDENT

He then kicked goal handily, making the score 14 to 0, favor of the Army. There it remained when the quarter ended.

The sailors opened the final period by hitting the West Point line for a two yard gain. Failing to penetrate further Van Heinburg punted high and it was the Army's ball on the Navy's 43-yard line. Oliphant failed to gain through the Navy's left side. Oliphant tried a forward pass and it was intercepted by Craig who was thrown on the Navy's 45-yard line. Goodman took McEwan's place in the Army lineup. Craig ran the ball around the Army's left wing to midfield. A forward pass by Craig was intercepted by Coffin who was thrown on West Point's 40-yard mark. Coffin failed to gain and the Army punted to Van Heinburg on the Navy's 25-yard line.

A forward pass was intercepted by Gerhard who ran the ball back to the Navy's 35-yard line. Blodgett took Van Heinburg's place. Oliphant failed to gain through the Navy's right wing. Oliphant tried a forward pass but it grounded and it was the Navy's ball on downs on Annapolis' 35-yard line. Blodgett shot a forward pass out of bounds. The game ended with the Army winning by a score of 14 to 0.

the evacuation of Nogales, Sonora, by General Villa's forces and the arrival here today of an additional 1200 infantrymen to reinforce the border troops at this point, residents of this town expressed a feeling of security such as had not been enjoyed since Villa forces took possession of Nogales, Sonora, following their defeat at Agua Prieta.

There was evidence of renewed confidence in every quarter and the belief was generally expressed that should there be a recurrence of the exciting events of yesterday, when Villa snipers fired into American territory from the Mexican side, killing one United States soldier and wounding two others, it would be met with prompt and vigorous response.

The troops scheduled to arrive today compose a provisional brigade made up from the seventh and twentieth regiments of United States infantry stationed at Douglas, Ariz.

Herbert L. Gates, private in Company I, of the twelfth infantry, was the most seriously hurt of the two wounded American soldiers. He is shot in the abdomen. An operation performed last night was reported to have resulted satisfactorily and it is believed that he has an even chance to recover. Arthur L. Saupé, private in the same company, was shot in the right foot.

The dead American soldier was Stephen Little, 22 years old, who also was a member of Company I. His home was in Fairmount, N. C.

Evidence that any attempt at looting in Nogales, Sonora, during the occupation of that town on the Mexican side of the border by Carranza forces would be summarily dealt with was conveyed to the American side last night in reports that members of General Alvaro Obregon's forces, who entered the town following the evacuation by Villa forces, had executed eight alleged looters.

Among the men executed were a Carranza captain and three Carranza soldiers. Latest reports of the casualties among the Villa snipers, whose firing into American territory precipitated the battle yesterday placed the total dead at more than forty.

Efforts to ascertain the exact location of the Villa forces who evacuated the Mexican town opposite here, thus far have proved futile. It was generally thought, however, that they had escaped toward Hermosillo where for several days Villa soldiers have been endeavoring to take the town for the Carranza troops.

At a conference last night with a representative of General Obregon, Colonel Sage, commanding the United States troops, explained that the firing exchanged between the Americans and the Carranza cavalry men was due in a measure to the lack of information by him that General Obregon's forces under Colonel Cardenas were approaching so close by.

Colonel Sage received an affidavit last night by Josua Lebrana, a fireman who worked with Edgar Bean, the American locomotive engineer, who was killed in Sonora early this week which asserts that the Villa commander, Beltran, shot Bean with his own hand.

According to the affidavit, the shooting took place when the locomotive which Bean was driving jumped the track after leaving Cananea where the Villa men had looted a bank and the properties of the Cananea Consolidated Copper company.

Alligator Eggs

More than 100 eggs have been found in one alligator. They are eaten in the West Indian Islands and on the west coast of Africa. They resemble in shape a hen's egg and have much the same taste, but are larger.

CHANGE IS MADE IN B.&O.S.-W. SCHEDULE

A new winter schedule will be put into effect on the Portsmouth Branch of the B. & O. S.-W. 7 a. m. The Portsmouth-Hamden accommodation train will leave Hamden at the same time as before, 8:05 a. m., but will arrive here at 11:05 a. m. instead of 10:55 as at present. Some slight changes are also made in the local stops between Banner, Clay and Canba.

Woman Is Seized By A Brute; Cries Bring Aid

Mrs. Rosa Nanley, wife of Basil Nanley, was the victim of an attempted criminal assault at her apartments in the Morrow flat building on Jefferson street Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Nanley was engaged in combing her hair when attacked from behind by an unknown man, she claimed, seizing her by the throat and throwing her against a table. She began biting his hand and otherwise resisted him until her screams brought aid from neighbors. Officer Roy Moore arrived in response to a hurry call but the fellow had made good his escape.

Raymer And Jenkins Were Bound Over

George Raymer and Melville Jenkins, local men arrested last Sunday on suspicion of having robbed the Alex Campbell store near Union Mills last Saturday night, were arraigned before Squire Byron this afternoon on a charge of burglary.

They waived examination, and consented to be bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each. In default of bond, they were both returned to the county jail.

Abe Mayer Is Named Elk Home Custodian

Abe Mayer, well-known local caterer, has been employed by the Board of Governors of the Portsmouth Lodge of Elks as custodian of the new home in the Play House building.

Mr. Mayer notified the board that he would accept this afternoon. He will be in charge throughout the day and evening, as the club rooms will be kept open to the members daily.

MRS. MAYO IN CITY

Mrs. John C. C. Mayo, widow of John C. Mayo, was en route late last evening to Kentucky, where she was a guest for dinner at the Washington Hotel Saturday noon. Mrs. Mayo was en route from Lexington, Ky., to her home in Pikeville, Ky., in her touring car, but became indisposed while at the hotel and cut short her stay.

Became Hysterical When Arrested

J. R. Rhoden was the name given by a Kentuckian, who after staggering all over the West End Saturday afternoon, begged so hard for Officer Moore to release him that he could be heard squares away. He was bundled into a taxi cab and removed to the city prison.

Hid Nails In Nose, So Carl Declares

Carl Hansen, of Hansen Bros., furniture store, was born across the sea and has run into practical jokes of all kinds and in side shows has belied men and women swallowing swords, four foot long. But it remained for a little foreigner to show Mr. Hansen a feat that caused him to open his eyes in wonderment.

The foreigner stepped into Mr. Hansen's store and pulled out ten big toenail nails and laid them on a table.

In broken English the foreigner declared he could put every nail into his nostrils—put 'em completely out of sight. All the fellow wanted was a dime if he had been feeble for some time past, turned the trick without batting an eye.

Mr. Hansen stated that the fellow had a rather small nose, too.

Judge Robert A. Calvert, aged 75 years, who was one of Portsmouth's oldest lawyers and best known citizens, died at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Bertha Shelton, wife of John Shelton, assistant postmaster of Chattanooga, Tenn., Saturday morning.

News of Judge Calvert's death was not unexpected for he had been feeble for some time past. He last visited this—his native city in the fall of 1914. He had been spending his winters in the south and the summer months here with his son, Ralph, since retiring from active practice of law five years ago.

Robert Allen Calvert was the second son of George Washington Calvert and was born in Scioto county, June 17, 1873. He was one of the best known members of the Scioto County bar, was of English extraction, his parents being of the good and sturdy stock that has contributed so much to the civilization and energy of American life. His father was a native of Fairfax county, Virginia and born near the site of the Bull Run battle field in 1803, and came to Ohio in 1812 with his mother and two brothers, where they located on a farm in Scioto county. Robert Allen passed his minority on the father's farm and received the rudiments of an education in the common schools of the county, but more fortunate than most boys reared on a farm, he subsequently had the advantages of an education more extended than that acquired at the district schools. After a course in these schools Mr. Calvert entered Wittenberg College at Springfield, O., from which institution he graduated. He then entered actively into business life. For four years he was engaged in the grocery business with his brother, Frank W., he then became the sole owner of the store and continued in the business for three years more. He finally took up the study of law in the office of the late John W. Collins, of Portsmouth, O. He was admitted to the bar in West Union, Adams county, on October 8, 1898 and immediately started the general practice of law, in which he achieved a high standing.

In the fall of 1892 Mr. Calvert was elected probate judge of Scioto county on the Republican ticket and re-elected in 1895, serving in all six years. He made a good official, and with the able assistance of his brother, still living, Thomas Calvert, an expert penman, who served him as deputy, now a dairyman of Summit Lawn, West Side, kept his records in exceptionally fine shape. After the close of his second term Judge Calvert resumed the practice of his chosen profession which he continued up until about five years ago, when his health began failing him. He was next to Attorney George O. Newman, now of Columbus, the oldest member of Scioto County Bar Association. He was a man of conservative temperament, considerate judgment, affable of manner, unusually industrious, an immaculate dresser and stood high in the esteem of his fellow practitioners. He was a staunch Republican, was at one time president of the Blaine club, and always took an active part in the affairs of his party. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Judge Calvert was married on June 17, 1892 to Martha Jane, daughter of John D. Clark, of Clark county, O., who passed away some years ago. Of five children born to them the following survive: Mrs. Cosette Todd, wife of W. Scott Todd, of Honnau, La.; Robert Calvert, of Honnau, whose wife, Mrs. Laura Calvert, has been spending the summer visiting her father, B. F. Richardson, of Wheelersburg; Ralph W. Calvert, of 1134 Second street and Mrs. Bertha Shelton of Chattanooga, Forest W. died at the age of one and half years.

The remains may be brought to Portsmouth for burial.

Charles K. Davis, a well known former coal operator of Jackson county and brother-in-law of Vaughn Sifers, a carpenter for at the steel plant, died of heart trouble in Detroit, Mich., Friday. He had been engaged in the automobile engine manufacturing business there for some years past. Mr. Davis was perhaps best known as the promoter of Lake Alma, a resort near Wellston.

Irene Wear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wear, was born Oct. 20, 1902, and died Nov. 17, 1915, age 13 years and 15 days.

Is it right to say we have lost our darling child? No. She is not dead, but only sent before. As the Miami Hospital in Dayton from vanishing star does not die, but

How to Buy a $2,900 House For $5.00 a Week!

YOUR AMERICAN IS A GREAT PERSON to own a home of his own. Through descent and training he is an independent type. He hates to be at a landlord's mercy; he likes to live in a residence built according to his own ideas and embodying features exclusively to the needs of his own family.

PUT FIVE DOLLARS A WEEK into the Royal Savings and Loan Co. for about six and one-half years. At the end of that time you will have almost $2900.00 in cold cash. The cash buyer of a home usually has at least a ten percent edge on the long time purchaser. He has the further advantage of being able to build his own home instead of taking one that some other man wants to sell.

HERE'S ANOTHER SCHEME—even better for the man on small salary: PUT $250 A WEEK into this company for about six and a half years. Then you have $1000, making it possible for us to lend you $2900 more which you can repay the same as rent, and before you know it the home is your very own.

THUS IN A LITTLE MORE THAN SIX YEARS the saving of but $2.50 a week would put you in possession of a $3000 home. It would be worth the money, too, for you would not be paying anybody a big profit for a long time sale. You would pay your $1,000 for a lot and your $2000 in cash to a contractor, cash deal for you all the way through, you see.

THERE'S NOTHING MYSTERIOUS ABOUT IT—no unsound finance, no unusual interest charge.

IT ALL RESULTS FROM THE SIMPLE FACT that with $1000 you have established your credit, and can buy something, ON ADVANTAGEOUS CASH TERMS—for the extent of THREE TIMES your capital.

SCORES ARE DOING IT, some right in your own neighborhood. Come in right now and we'll talk it over. The sooner you start the sooner you'll be moving into that new home of yours.

This is the Safest and Best Plan Ever Devised!

shines in another hemisphere, so she shines in Heaven, and will beckon us thither. With tear-dimmed eyes we look heavenward and give thanks for this life which has called forth so many ministrations of love and sacrifice and bound us to it with cords of tenderest affection.

The funeral services were conducted Saturday morning by Rev. Charles Oakley, of the First Christian church.

Besides her grief-stricken parents she leaves two brothers and a host of friends.

Wherefore should I make my moan, Now the darling child is dead? She to rest is early gone, She to Paradise is fled, I shall go to her, but she Never shall return to me.

God forbids her longer stay, God recalls His precious loan; No hath taken her away, From my bosom to His own, Surely what He wills is best, Happy in His will I rest.

Faith cries out, "It is the Lord!" Let Him do what seemeth good; Be Thy Holy Name adored, Take the gift awhile bestowed, Take the child, though still she's mine; Thine she is, forever Thine, MOTHER.

E. G. Patterson
Mrs. Sarah A. Fisher, of 632 Second street received a telegram today, telling her of the death of her son-in-law, E. G. Patterson, of the Miami Hospital in Dayton from Bright's disease last evening. The body will arrive in this city this evening and will be taken to the home of his uncle, Harry M. Flowers, of 1665 Grand street. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Mrs. Anna Roth

Mrs. Anna Roth, 70, step-mother of Mrs. Tom Dawson, of this city, died of apoplexy at Aberdeen, near Mayesville, Wednesday. The deceased made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Lura Evans, and was visiting at the home of a neighbor when stricken.

BURGLAR VISITS HOME; WAS FRIGHTENED AWAY

A burglar visited the home of Frank Crabtree, a shoemaker, of 1232 Fifteenth street, Friday night about 10 o'clock, but was discovered and frightened away from the kitchen door, boldly showing his face three times before she mustered up sufficient courage to make an outcry, whereupon he bolted from the house. Barefoot footprints were found on the kitchen floor and an examination showed that the intruder had gained entrance by raising a rear window. The police were notified and made a thorough search of the premises and immediate neighborhood without result. Mrs.

Crabtree was unable to distinguish in the dark whether the man was white or black.

Mrs. C. A. Davis and daughter, Alma, of the Hilltop, have returned from a short visit in Cincinnati.

Miss Ruth Mooney, who is making her home with her uncle, Dr. C. M. Mooney, of Waverly, this winter, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mooney, of Vinton avenue.

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

A Simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive but Invaluable

The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 24 hours.

Get 24 ounces Pinex (50 cents worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply of the most effective cough remedy at a cost of only 50 cents or less. You couldn't buy an equal remedy—cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

The promptness, certainty and ease with which this Pinex syrup overcomes a bad cough, chest or throat cold is truly remarkable. It quickly loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough and heals and soothes painful cough in a hurry. With a persistent, loose cough it stops the formation of plugs in the throat and bronchial tubes, thus ending the annoying hacking.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract rich in pinic acid and is famous the world over for its excellent effect in loosening, soothing, cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making this ask your druggist for "24 ounces of Pinex," and don't accept anything else. A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

It was Mrs. P. J. Kline who read a paper on "The World Peace Foundation and Baroness Von Suttner" at the peace program given by the Woman's Literary Club Friday afternoon in place of Mrs. Jean Kline.

Socially the Ironton Irononian Saturday morning said:

"Mrs. Frank Neekamp and daughters, Misses Laura, Emma and Georgiana, motored to Huntington, W. Va., Thursday and spent the day."

"Mrs. Sarah Wheeler went to Wheelersburg, O., Friday for a week end visit with Mrs. Ed Ranshaw."

Mr. and Mrs. George Palmer, of Franklin avenue, entertained at dinner and supper Thanksgiving Day Mr. Palmer's sister, Hattie Teakin, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Booley, of Huntington, Mrs. Margaret Bender and son, Ralph, Mrs. Mary Bolder, Theodore Riser, Miss Goshia Penfold and Miss Anna Palmer and George Palmer, son and daughter of the host and hostess.

All the women and girls in the city who wish to join the night cooking class are requested to meet at the High school Monday evening at 7 o'clock. The class, which is open to old and young, has not started as yet, but it is hoped enough will be present Monday evening to justify Miss Summers, the teacher, in giving the first lesson.

Miss Stella Hughes spent Thanksgiving week at the home of Mrs. O. C. Kendall, in Huntington.

Mrs. Belle Simpson, of Lucasville, entertained with a turkey dinner Thanksgiving Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Simpson and son, William, of Portsmouth, Miss Charlotte Simpson, of Columbus, Mrs. Katherine Beard and daughter, Louise, and Dr. Daniel Webster, of Lucasville.

A Mother's Peace.

If every expectant mother would get Mother's Friend from her druggist and would apply this wonderful external remedy and valuable help as directed, she would soon experience comfort and peace of mind. For many years this time-tried remedy has been used and strongly endorsed by experienced mothers, for it is the one safe, dependable remedy that penetrates to relieve all strain on nerves, clogs, ligaments and all parts involved. It makes the muscles expand naturally and stops pain.

In All Sorts of Weather Peruna Is An Ideal Protector

Mr. George A. Douglas, No. 43 East 131st St., New York, N. Y., writes:

"As my work compels me to spend a large part of my time out of doors, I have often been distressed by sudden rains, chilled by extreme cold, and I soon found that I had a bad case of catarrh of the bronchial tubes. I tried various remedies, but nothing I did seemed to help me until I took Peruna. This splendid medicine took right hold of me, drove every bit of the disease out, and built me up until I felt stronger than I had for years. Whenever I have been exposed now a couple of doses always restore me. Peruna is an ideal protector in all sorts of weather."

Peruna has probably cured more cases of catarrh than any other remedy in existence. Catarrh nearly always depends upon a disordered nerve center. Peruna is a natural stimulant that enables the system to overcome the catarrhal condition. We have thousands of unsolicited testimonials to prove these statements beyond all cavil.

Those who object to liquid medicine can now procure Peruna Tablets.

Children's Program At First Christian

Special numbers by the children will mark the rally day exercises to be observed at the First Christian Bible school, Sunday morning, when the fall offering for home missions will be taken. Supt. Howland has been notified that the Sunday school has been apportioned $100.00 as its offering for home missions, and it is hoped this amount will be obtained. The little children who will participate in the program have been practicing diligently under the leadership of Mrs. John Williams and Mrs. Della Puckett. They have their parts down fine and the splendid program is expected to come off without the slightest hitch or jar. Following the regular Bible study period the following program will be rendered:

LECTURE AT NEW BOSTON

Rev. J. E. McGurk, of Portsmouth, will on Sunday night deliver a free lecture at the Thalian Theatre in New Boston. The address will be interesting for the general public. Protestant, Catholic, members of all churches

TERMINALS

F. E. Sexton, 31, N. & W. freight agent of Columbus, had his right ankle badly sprained Friday when he slipped on the side of a platform. He was working on the N. & W. local east bound No. 767 and was "laid bare" to the lead-ers at Waverly when the accident occurred.

A large touring car leaving an Ohio house with number 11111 broke down the N. & W. bridge gates on Madison Road the Tabernacle. Sunday school exercises in the afternoon, followed by a singing. The machine just missed short preaching service. Rev. King, returning into N. & W. extra freight will preach in the evening.

A. J. Woodland, the machine was Homer Strother, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodland, who were "joy riders," who Mrs. Robert Strother, of Gallia, made their escape before the watchmen could obtain their names.

Edwin Ledwick is suffering with a very sore right hand. While at the Columbus Athletic Club rooms he was badly sprained Friday when he slipped on the side of a platform. He was working on the N. & W. local east bound No. 767 and was "laid bare" to the lead-ers at Waverly when the accident occurred.

Work Progressing On The Viaduct

All concrete on the south side of the N. & W. tracks for the new Lawson Run viaduct is expected to be completed by tonight. Quite a number of forms are all ready to be set down and the work generally on the big structure is progressing as satisfactorily as possible. William Gergenz, director of public service, visited the viaduct Friday in company with C. F. Lash, division engineer of the N. & W. railway, and expressed himself as well pleased with the progress made.

HORSE BITES BOY

Frank Dailey, young son of Mr. Gargenz's cap and ran in front of the horse, which made a grab at the lad's leg. The animal's front teeth sank into the boy's upper lip, the cut extending from the corner of his eye to the corner of his mouth. He was taken to the office of Dr. Wagner. The driver made the lads Chellis Dawson. Several stitches got off. Dailey grabbed Henry were necessary to close the gash.

RABBIT HAS BEST OF CHASE

Edgar Gore, street car conductor, knows now he is "no good" as a rabbit catcher. Saturday morning the headlight on the street car disclosed a rabbit sitting in the middle of the car tracks near the Peoples brick plant office. Ed got off the car and reached out to close his fingers about the bunny's neck, when it jumped. Once out of the glare of the light, the rabbit made for the hillside, with Gore close behind. When the "cotton-tail" darted into some brush Gore returned to work.

NEW BOSTON

At the meeting of the board of education Friday evening it was decided to hold the dedication of the new Stanton avenue school on Sunday afternoon, December 5th. The Jr. O. U. A. M. will arrange to have several speakers on hand. Dr. W. G. Cheney has been chosen by the school board to deliver a talk on his trip to the Panama Exposition. The Junior Order will present two flags to the schools. The dedication has been postponed for some time on account of seats for the auditorium not arriving but the seats are on hand and will be installed this next week.

W. I. Davis was paid a month's salary for transient officers. Mrs. Lennie Perry's application for janitress was placed on file. The American Seating Co. was allowed a bill of $197 for new seats. Frank Taylor, J. C. Harris and Thomas York were members present.

Douglas Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cooper, is ill. After considerable trouble in packing and blocking up the heavy machinery, Kelley Bros' steam shovel was extricated from the water main ditch on Gallia street, late Friday evening.

Council met in called session Friday evening and awarded the $1,000 sewer improvement bonds to the Steacy-Brown Bond Company of Cincinnati.

Jake Remembers The Times Force

"A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed". Probably that old saying was uppermost in the mind of Jake Pfau, popular caterer and well known baker of Eleventh street, Friday afternoon, when the aroma of the warm bread fresh from his sanitary oven struck his nostrils and caused him to think of the boys at the Times office. No matter what prompted him to act, Jake grabbed a big bread case and chucking therein fifteen fine big loaves of the bread soon had it transported to the Times office where it was distributed. "Raisin", who had this bread for supper enjoyed the same with the same appetites as they did their Thanksgiving dinner. In all Mr. Pfau sent five different brands, namely: "Raisin", "Camp" or "Hearth", "Mothers Genuine Home Made", "Milk Crust" and "Wheat-a-Lux". Mr. Pfau's bread products are right there in every way and a testimonial from any member of the Times staff is his for the mere asking.

There Is Silver Now, Where Once Was Gold.

Companion Song to "Silver Threads Among The Gold."

Andante Moderato E.S.S. HUNTINGTON

We have loved each other fondly, — And the time seems far a way, —
Life has al-ways been June weather, — We have nev-er been a part, —

Since we stood be-fore the al-tar, — Fif-ty years a-go to-day, —
Ev-ry hour has giv-en glad-ness — From the sun-shine in your heart, —

Then your hair was bright and gold-en, — Burn-ish by the morn-ing light, —
Tho' our time is get-ting short-er, — With each oth-er we've grown old, —

But your heart is just the same, dear, — Tho' your head is snow-y white —
You've not changed, tho' now there's sil-ver, — Shin-ing where in youth was gold —

REFRAIN
There is sil-ver now where once was gold, — has not changed the days of old, — Your heart is just the same as — then, dear, Tho' there's sil-ver now, where once was gold —

Women Taking Men's Places At Machines In Scotland

Glasgow, Nov. 27 (Correspondence of the A. P.)—It might be assumed that to expand more than two fold the great shipbuilding plants on the Clyde so far as employees and output is concerned would be all that is expected of this center in the way of munitions. But it is not all that the Scotsmen on the western coast are contributing by any means, for here, as in other parts of the commonwealth, new workshops are being erected for munitions, and plants intended originally for war purposes are being turned into shell factories.

"Some where in Scotland" an Associated Press correspondent today visited a two hundred acre building plant which has grown up in a little more than a month like a gigantic city with its scores of separate structures. There are no less than eleven miles of trolley track to carry shells from place to place. The plant will be turned soon and workers for it are now being trained elsewhere.

The plant is being erected by contractors who will make no profit and on a tour of munition plants much of that sort of thing is seen. Engineers of large experience and reputation and owners of big establishments are "doing their bit" without a thought of personal gain.

As in the case of the famous Armstrong works at New Castle plants engaged in shipbuilding on the Clyde were open to inspection. The shops on the Tyne and the Clyde are playing their part, and a tremendously impressive part it is too.

In Glasgow as elsewhere, the participation of women in the industry is apparent on every hand. In their khaki or blue aprons with dust caps of the same color, they are busy at the lathes and swarms in and out in thousands as the shift period arrives.

Every foreman with whom the correspondent talked, was enthusiastic about the application and efficiency of the women workers. Of course, they are not set to work at the heavy machines, and they are chiefly given tasks requiring only a few days' experience. In every establishment as the women workers learn how to work the machines for the lighter shells, the men are taken out for the manufacture of the heavier munitions.

What the permanent effect of all this change in the working operations of women will be after the war is not concerning the employers now, though they appreciate that it will bring its chain of problems for solution later. To the women it is already bringing more money than they ever had in their lives before and a sense of independence never experienced.

THEATRICAL

"Within the Law" at the Sun
Next Week

"Within the Law" melodrama of finely interest, as it deals with the ins and outs of the metropolitan police department, will be produced at the Sun theatre next week by the Ted Dalley Stock company. The author, Bayard Veiller, had many reasons to congratulate himself, for his play has many stirring scenes and nearly all the qualities of a big melodramatic success.

"Within the Law" is an interesting, out-and-out melodrama. It ought to make a fortune for Mr. Veiller before it ends its career through the country. It is so superior to "The Third Degree" and other police dramas of comparatively recent date that it is not to be named in the same class. At the same time it's a melodrama—but a real one.

Manager Francis Mack, of the Lyric theatre, is going to offer his patrons Monday night one of the best films of the season, "Valeska Suratt in 'The Soul of Broadway'."

So successful has been Gerakline Farrar in Carmen that she will soon enact the leading role in another standard opera. She is said to have received $25,000 for her work in Carmen.

The latest acquisition to the movies is Digby Bell, one of the best films of the season, "Valeska Suratt in 'The Soul of Broadway'."

Cleveland is getting four magnificent picture houses. Cleveland is considered one of the best picture towns in the country.

Director Francis J. Grandon, who is staging the Helen Ware feature drama, "Cross Currents," had a comparatively new yacht consumed by fire to provide a thrill in that play. The boat was over 110 feet long.

Julius Dean, a well-known actress, signs a universal contract. She has never before appeared in the movies.

ENORMOUS FREIGHT TRAFFIC

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 27.—Enormous shipments of freight for export continue to go east from the Pittsburgh district in spite of congested terminals at important Atlantic Seaboard points, and in yards along the various railroads between here and New York. Railroad officials said today that every possible expedient was being used to handle the tremendous freight movement, even to the liberal expenditure of money for additional terminals.

Some such terminal near New York was secured by the Pennsylvania this week and will take care of 600 cars. No time was being lost in loading all available vessels, they said, forces being assisted by experienced transportation officials and freight handlers from Pittsburgh.

For a time it was feared some of the Pittsburgh factories, whose output is largely for export, would be compelled to shut down next Monday until the railroads could care for the freight but today railway men declared all freight was being taken and pushed through to the coast with as little delay as possible. One official said the lines were not suffering so much from lack of cars, as in the past, but from lack of track room many cars being held because it was impossible to secure dock space for the contents while waiting for vessels.

MADE MONEY ON RACE

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Bicycle riders who competed in the six day race here left for New York today to prepare for a six day event which starts on Dec. 4.

Because of the success of the local event another race probably will be staged early in the spring. Promoters said the profit was between $5,000 and $6,000.

THE SERBIAN FORCES SOON WILL BE ARMY WITHOUT A COUNTRY

London, Nov. 27.—The Serbian forces soon will become an army without a country, unless the French should defeat the Bulgarians, four divisions of whom are said to be hammering at the French lines. Reports arrive from various sources that Montenegro has been surrounded by Bulgarians and that they may not wait for their Austro-German allies before entering the Macedonian Capital.

The main Serbian army retreating in a southwesterly direction before Field Marshal Von Mackensen's troops may find no rest even in Greek territory, as it is reported here that the invaders of Serbia would not hesitate to cross into Greece.

Apparently the German leaders expect the Serbians and their allies will await attack in Greece. It is said these operations will be under the supreme command of Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

Additional reports from the battles at Otesipou in Mesopotamia near Bagdad indicate that the British forces won a substantial success instead of suffering a reverse as first accounts led every one to believe.

The diplomatic representatives at Athens of the entente powers are still active, their latest effort to settle definitely all outstanding questions being the presentation to Premier Skoufodis of a note detailing measures deemed indispensable for the security and freedom of action of the allied troops.

The situation along the Rumanian frontier, where a great Russian force is said to have been gathered, is still obscure. The display by the Rumanian public of feeling in favor of the entente is regarded in London as an indication that the nation is in a position to disregard the demands of the central powers.

No definite news has been received of the renewed Austro-German offensive in Galicia. It is expected, however, that this movement will be pushed energetically for the political effect

French Commands Are In Hands Of Tried Men

Paris, Nov. 26.—The constant efforts of General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, to keep the high commands in the charge of men of proved vigor and initiative and are exemplified once more by announcement in the official journal that seven division generals and three brigade generals have been transferred to the reserve. Their places have been given to younger men who have distinguished themselves in recent operations.

Among the officers retired are General A. M. B. Drude and General Mas Latrie.

PEACE ADVOCATES ARE OPTIMISTIC

Washington, Nov. 27.—Prominent advocates who are behind a movement for a conference of neutral nations to be called in an effort to end the European war, expressed themselves as optimistic today over their plans.

A delegation representing the movement saw President Wilson yesterday in an effort to induce him to give it his support, but the president was non-committal. One of the women said afterwards, however, that she believed the president was deeply impressed with the information laid before him, adding: "I think you will hear something from the White House before very long."

Although the president will make no announcement regarding the conference with the women, his position is that he as yet had no word from Europe which would lead him to believe that the time was opportune for him to take any step.

READY TO CONSIDER REVENUE

Washington, D. C., Nov. 27.—Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, chairman of the senate finance committee, who, in a formal announcement approved Secretary McAdoo's suggestion for raising by internal taxes the additional revenue required to meet the initial expenses of the administration's defense program, was ready today to begin consideration of revenue problems which his committee will help to solve.

Senator Smart, of Utah, prominent Republican member of the finance committee, was also out with a statement today in which he attacked Secretary McAdoo's general financial statement.

British Win Over The Turks

London, Nov. 27.—The battle between British and Turkish forces at Otesipou near Bagdad, which for a time looked like a check to the Mesopotamia expedition is now reported to have been a success of first importance. Information received today is that the retirement of the British after the capture of Otesipou occasioned by the lack of water was only temporary. After Turkish forces withdrew in the direction of Bagdad as announced officially, the British re-occupied their former position, encountering no opposition as they took possession of Otesipou for the second time.

The British troops at once began the work of clearing the Turkish trenches which were filled with dead or wounded soldiers. The British captured a large quantity of arms and ammunition, in addition to the 1300 prisoners previously reported.

Otesipou has been the scene of many fateful battles. The ancient city was besieged and plundered a dozen times by Greek and Roman invaders from the east before the Arabs finally checked it.

INVESTIGATE FIRE ON STEAMER

Bordeaux, France, Nov. 27.—An inquiry has been begun by the government to ascertain the cause of the fire on board the British steamship Barkdale, which arrived here yesterday from New York with a cargo of horses and cotton. The Barkdale was several days out when smoke was observed emerging from No. 4 hold. The hatches were closed and the fire made little progress during the remainder of the voyage. On arrival here the hold was opened and flooded. Only one hundred bales of cotton were destroyed.

Anticipate Chicago As Republican Nat'l Convention Site

Chicago, Nov. 27.—Hotel reservations for Republican delegates from nine states have been made here, it became known today, in anticipation that the 1916 Republican national convention will be awarded to Chicago.

New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and Minnesota and Iowa are among the states for which reservations have been made.

Individual reservations include the name of Myron T. Herrick of Ohio.

Republican national committee-men will meet in Washington on December 14 to decide where the party's convention is to be held.

ALLIES LAND TROOPS AT SALONIKI

London, Nov. 27.—Allied troops continue to land at Saloniki in large numbers. A Reuter dispatch filed yesterday at Saloniki says that important reinforcements reached on Thursday and were landed immediately.

After the occupation of Pristina by the Austrians and Germans the message says the main body of Serbians retreated in a southerly direction. The Serbians were unable to maintain their positions in the Katchanik region, owing to the greatly superior forces of the invaders. Official announcement has been made to the commanders of the allied troops at Saloniki of the guarantees given by the Greek government relative to freedom of action of their armies.

Winter has set in earlier than usual in the Balkans. It is expected military operations on both sides will be greatly hampered thereby.

Paris, Nov. 27.—Press dispatches from Athens say that the French and British forces landed at Saloniki have now attained important proportions. The Patrias of Athens gives their number at 125,000. These forces are abundantly supplied with arms and ammunition.

Some 40,000 or 45,000 more men are said to be on the way to Saloniki at which port four thousand troops are debarking even day.

MAY LAND TROOPS IN GREEK PORTS

Milan, Nov. 26. (Via Paris, Nov. 27.)—Earl Kitchener, British secretary for war, obtained permission from the Greek government for allied troops to land at Greek ports other than Saloniki, according to an Athens despatch to the Corriere Della Sera.

SKATERS ADOPT THE CHIN CHIN COLLAR

This season's skating costumes excel anything that has yet come to the fore in fashions for this sport. And one of the most popular innovations is that of the "chin chin" collar, which is shown here. The picture shows Louise Boldt in a blue costume trimmed with money. The hat is of white velvet trimmed with black seal.

Mayor Has Plan To Stop Taxi Cab War

Mayor Adam Frick believes that one way of ending the clashes between rival taxicab owners and drivers at the N. & W. depot is to limit the number of machines stationed there.

To that end the mayor has instructed Chief B. E. Allen to detail an officer to keep a record of the number of passengers entering taxis for a period of one week. It found that two or three will prove sufficient for each company instead of six or eight only that number will be permitted in the vicinity of the station and the others kept away. The practice of the drivers chasing after passengers as they alight from trains has also been ordered discontinued by the mayor.

The new arrangement called for by the mayor was started Friday night and the patrolman's report showed that the Independent and Interstate companies had six machines each on the job, the former landing a total of 23 passengers as against the Interstate's 22.

WITNESSED MINSTREL SHOW IN PENITENTIARY

His son, Edward Metzger, frequently comes to Portsmouth as traveling salesman, selling the Counsellor cigar. Both father and son have a host of friends in this city, who will be pleased to learn of the elder Metzger's successful dip into politics.

ATTAINS ROBUST MAJORITY

The Commercial Building and Loan Company has reason to feel proud—it has successfully attained its twenty-first birthday. This interesting anniversary came with this month and this robust enterprise deserves all the congratulations it is receiving over the interesting event.

In 1894, November the 15th, the Commercial Building and Loan Company was organized and began business. It was a lusty youngster from the beginning because it was started out right and it has always been of steady and robust growth because it has ever had the proper management and direction. The men who started it on its career are mostly with it today, and they have taken pride in its growth and progress.

Truly, these, as we look back and compare with the past, have been really remarkable. In 1895, when the Commercial was but one year old its assets reached the insignificant total of $17,410.07. Ten years later, or in 1905, it boasted a grand total and unusual thriftiness for that period of $356,737.56. But another decade gone, this November, its assets reach the colossal figures of $695,904.75; or more than forty times greater than they were in the first year.

The best growth, however, isn't all merely in size—the thing that is to be kept growing and growing indefinitely, must build on the right foundation and be guided by safe and sound principles. Such is the case with the Commercial. Its primary purpose was and is as much so today as ever, to help people build homes. It realizes the best way to do that is to aid the one who wishes to acquire a home and to secure those who place with it their savings, out of which come the funds for building. Because it has held steadily, painstakingly to this policy, never deviating from it, that it still maintains the altogether unique distinction of never having had to bring a foreclosure suit and of never having lost a dollar on investment. It has builded hundreds of homes, it will build hundreds more, because more and more are people understanding how valuable an aid, how simply is solved the problem of securing a home, when a safe and sound building association stands ready to give its help thereto.

Below is published the twenty-first annual statement of the Commercial. It is largely written in figures, but a study of them will give an appreciation of the good work this institution is doing in making Portsmouth a city of homes, the best name and reputation a place can attain.

Lower Court Affirmed In 3 Cases By Court Of Appeals

Judgment of the lower court was affirmed in three cases recently submitted in this county by the court of appeals. Copies of the opinions of the appellate court in the three cases were received by John W. Hall, clerk of courts, this morning.

The cases were:

Mary E. Sutton, plaintiff-in-error, against James H. Sutton, defendant-in-error; judgment of lower court awarding the defendant a decree of divorce and $1,500 alimony, affirmed; Bannan and Bannan for plaintiff-in-error, and Milner, Miller, and Searl, for defendant-in-error.

R. O. Richardson and others, plaintiffs-in-error, against the Standard Telephone Manufacturing Company and others, defendants-in-error, a suit to recover judgment on a note for $500, executed by the company, from the company and the endorsers thereof; judgment of the lower court sustaining the demand for the petition on behalf of the endorsers sustained; Miller and Mickelwait for the plaintiffs-in-error; Anselm Skelton for defendants-in-error.

Samuel Harlow Company, plaintiffs-in-error, against the Drexel Furniture Company, defendants-in-error; judgment of the lower court awarding defendant-in-error judgment for $121.00 on a disputed account, sustained; Milner, Miller and Searl for plaintiffs-in-error; Johnson and Johnson, for defendants-in-error.

All three judgments of the appellate court, Festus Walters, Edwin B. Sayre and Matthew Merriman, concurred in the opinions. The cases were submitted last week.

Going To Washington

WHY "ANURIC"

IS AN INSURANCE AGAINST SUDDEN DEATH!

Sufferers from Backache, Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble

Before an Insurance Company will take a risk on your life, the examining physician will test the urine and report whether you are a good risk. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog, you suffer from backache, sick-headache, dizzy spells, or the twinges and pains of lumbago, rheumatism and gout. The urine is often cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore and sleep is disturbed two or three times a night. This is the time you should consult some physician of wide experience—such as Dr. Pierce, of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. Send him the large trial package of his new discovery—"Anurie". Write him your symptoms and send a sample of urine for test. Experience has taught Dr. Pierce that "Anurie" is the most powerful agent in dissolving uric acid, as hot water melts sugar, besides being absolutely harmless and is endowed with other properties, for it preserves the kidneys in a healthy condition by thoroughly cleansing them. Being so many times more active than lithia, it clears the heart valves of any sandy substances which may clog them and checks the degeneration of the blood-vessels, as well as regulating blood pressure. "Anurie" is a regular insurance and life-saver for all big meat eaters and those who deposit lime-salts in their joints. Ask the druggist for "Anurie" put up by Dr. Pierce, in 50-cent packages.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the liver and bowels have been favorably known for nearly 50 years.

PIMPLY? WELL, DON'T BE!

People Notice It. Drive Them Off With Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

A pimply face will not embarrass you much longer if you get a package of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights.

Cleanse the blood, the bowels and the liver with Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the successful substitute for calomel—there's never any sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

No one who takes Olive Tablets is ever cured with "a dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad disposition or pimply face.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spent years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immediate effective result.

Take one or two nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

Affidavit Is Filed

Harry Chueales filed an affidavit in the mayor's court Saturday morning against Ed Treat, a saloonkeeper, charging him with disorderly conduct.

Chueales claimed that Treat headed a party of young men, who got unruly and abusive at the Manhattan restaurant Friday night, starting an argument when he priced a bottle of olives to them for fifty cents.

BUSINESS VISITORS

E. V. J. Caddy, a well known Pond Creek citizen, was a business visitor in the city Friday.

George V. Hopkins, of the Hotel Norlan, has returned from a visit to the Nihart farm in Clinton county.

William Platt returned Friday from a trip to the horse markets of the northern part of the state.

FIRM LANDS $40,000 STREET PAVING JOB

It was announced Saturday that A. W. Burns & Company, who did the paving work on the Scioto Trail this summer, have just been awarded a contract calling for the paving of five streets in Columbus. It is a $40,000 job. Work on the contract is to begin in the early spring.

WANTS GARBAGE CANS COVERED

The mayor in a letter to the public service department expresses regret that there has been little or no compliance with his oft made appeals for installing covered garbage receptacles. He asks the department to make another effort in that direction by calling on persons in the business district and principal streets to substitute closed receptacles for the open ones, feeling that this arrangement will greatly add to the general cleanliness of the city.

WORK ON SUPERSTRUCTURE WILL BEGIN ON MAY 1ST

It was stated in local C. & O. circles Saturday that the first work to be done on the superstructure of the new C. & O. bridge at Sciotoville would take place on May 1. It is thought that one of the spans can be completed every 60 days.

Plant To Resume

The Ironton Irontonian Saturday morning from Portsmouth to make arrangements for the starting of the factory.

"Gradually all departments here will be resumed which will be welcome news to the former employees of this industry."

IDLEWILD NOTES

Ground has been broken and the foundation begun by M. D. Mathiott, for a modern residence on the corner of Jordan and Gallia avenues, in Idlewild. Mat Holsinger has the contract for the house complete, while J. C. Harris is doing the brick work.

Mr. Harris also has the contract for a second residence at the corner of Jordan and Millbrook avenues, Idlewild, which will be begun just as soon as the first one is well under way.

It is stated that John Salimanski will erect a cottage in the Spring on one of the three lots which he recently purchased at the corner of Taylor and Moorfield avenues.

Miss Anna Scott has purchased the handsome little brick residence house is occupied.

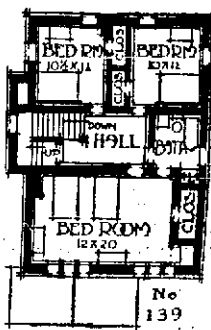

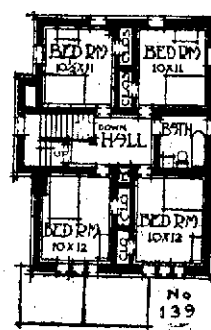

T. J. Basham has completed his brick residence at the corner of Taylor avenue and Gallia street, in Idlewild.

John A. Grimes, contractor, is completing the combined storm and sanitary sewer in Sunnyside Addition.

The view from the third floor of Dr. A. R. Moore's new residence is said to be very beautiful, and anyone interested in suburban property should take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy some before the handsome little brick residence house is occupied.

A Practical Home with Pergola Porch Design

"Home of Character" No. 139—By John Henry Newson

This particular Newson design (24x28 feet) is different both in exterior and interior from any of our other designs. A pergola porch supported by lattice columns gives it an air of individuality, making it stand out as something just a little different from other houses in the neighborhood. The porch treatment not only insures protection from the sun, but also permits a maximum of light for the living room.

The novel treatment of the end of the living room is obtained by placing the fireplace between the stairway and a built-in seat or coat closet, with benches and columns separating them.

This house is planned to contain either six or seven rooms, with bath; a well-lighted attic, combination stairs from kitchen and living room, an ice room, and basement under the entire house with grade entry.

On the second floor the arrangement is optional for either three bedrooms, with one large bedroom across the entire front, or four bedrooms, dividing the front into two separate and well-lighted bedrooms.

The house shown here was built 24x28 feet in size. We also carry plans in stock for sizes 22x26, 24x25, 26x30 and 28x32 feet.

This house can be built to run from $2500 to $3500. It is one of our most practical and popular designs.

Price on plans is only $10.00, with specifications $2.50 additional. As is our custom, we will be glad to show you these plans, subject to acceptance, permitting careful inspection, absolutely with obligation.

Commercial Building And Loan A Great Institution

It always pleases us to write about building associations, because the work thereof is so intimately and vitally woven about homes—hope, the nesting place of all that is dear, the qualities of man, the tiny, but irreplaceable hallmark of the nation.

It is an axiom that has never been so much as gainsaid, or even doubted, that home makes the better children, that the more homes there are in a given place the more peace, order and content prevail there. But home never reaches its best interpretation until those who build therein it feel and know the inspiration of actual ownership.

Any agency therefore that tends to the building of homes, the making of more home owners, is doing a noble, a most excellent work. It is the part of building associations to do this, and the more successful they are at their work, the greater is the appreciation that should be their part.

In this connection we take particular pleasure and pride in speaking of the Commercial Building and Loan company of this city. It fully typifies its name. It builds and it loans the money through which the building is done. Its career is untold—in fact, we doubt if it has ever been equaled. As will be seen by its annual report, published in this issue, and the reading of which is advised, it has been in existence for twenty-one years. Beginning small, almost with nothing, it has advanced steadily and substantially from year to year until it is now one of the biggest local financial institutions. Even last year, over most of which dullness and stagnation prevailed generally in business, a period when building was slow and many had to draw on their savings, it went steadily forward and at the end showed the altogether handsome gain of $65,000 in assets.

It is not for this constant and unfaltering growth that it is so much exceptional and distinguished, as for the more striking fact, that in all the years it has been attaining its majority, so to speak, such has been the case, the thoroughness and the soundness with which its affairs are conducted, it has never yet had occasion to resort to the courts to foreclose any mortgage given it, and it has never lost a dollar on a loan. As a result its assets are today entirely clean and of absolutely fixed value, free mortgages and the cash itself. Hundreds of homes, in which dwell their own contented owners, are the monument it has built to itself, but its work is not complete, in that respect, by any means. We might say, extensive as it is, that it has no more than begun. For with enlarging success, increased prestige and vastly expanded means, its capabilities are all the greater holding sure in its course an uninterrupted course lies clear before it, and hundreds more, yes, thousands, will seek of it the sure advantages it affords them in securing their own homes.

Another worthy province of the building association, scarce secondary to that of creating homes, is encouraging and aiding thrift. To him who has only a small sum to invest, or wishes to save, and must do so from week to week, or even longer intervals, they offer advantages that are unrivaled. Nothing of human desiring can be safer than

When So Many Others See—
Why Shut Your Eyes to these FACTS?

Facts—not claims—that make Studebaker the best car one of the world's greatest automobile factories have ever built.

This is a history-making car—in power, size and quality. In power and flexibility, this FOUR equals most SIXES on the market.

The ONLY 7-passenger, 4-cylinder car that has ever been offered in America or Europe for less than $1000.

The ONLY 1-cylinder car with a 40 horse power, 37 1/2-inch bore x 5-inch stroke motor that has ever been offered in America or Europe for less than $1000.

Price has been reduced from $925 to $855.

But the wheelbase has been INCREASED from 108 to 112 inches. The capacity has been INCREASED from 5-passenger to SEVEN-passenger.

The motor has been INCREASED from 3 1/2 x 5 inches to 3 7/8 x 5 inches.

The tires have been INCREASED from 33 x 4 to 34 x 4 Goodrich.

The cooling system and radiator have been INCREASED in size. The seats have been INCREASED in width.

The upholstery is the FINEST obtainable grade of genuine, hand-buffed, semi-glazed leather.

Nothing decreased but the price. Wherever a change was made in materials, better materials were used.

It is NOT "essentially the same car as last year" at a less price. It is a much BIGGER and BETTER car at a less price.

In face of these facts, can you shut your eyes to Studebaker VALUE?

See the car at once—write for 1916 catalog.

There is hope for the Reds. Heine Groh says that with two good pitchers, a first class catcher, two outfielders and a second sacker, the Reds will finish in the first division next season. How about a first sacker and a new mascot?

The score of 9 to 6 in favor of the Alumni in the game against the Ironton H. S. team yesterday indicates that the game was hotly contested and it sure enough was. The Alumni victory proved that Wieteki, Frecka, Finley, Verigan, Unrue and a few other old stars have not found it impossible to come back and, with-out practice or a clearly defined set of signals, they put up a creditable game.

We suppose that guaranteed Langford-McVey fight is warranted "fast black."

Why should they punish O. B. players who play against the Reds? To play against the Reds is generally punishment enough for O. B. players.

Thursday 12 to 0.

Cleveland, Nov. 27.—It is possible that there will be no more Reserve-Case football games. Efforts heretofore unsuccessful are being renewed for an athletic combination of the two Cleveland colleges.

Seattle, Nov. 27.—A record of eight consecutive years without a defeat was established for the University of Washington football team yesterday when the eleven defeated the University of Colorado team, 46 to 0, in the closing game of the 1915 season.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 27.—Robt. D. Peck, Jr., of Lock Haven, Pa., was elected captain of the 1916 University of Pittsburgh football team at a meeting following the game with the Pennsylvania State College here.

By defeating Case at Cleveland Thursday, Western Reserve won the Ohio Conference title, with a final standing of 6 games won and 1 lost. Miami's victory over Cincinnati placed that team second, 5 won and 1 lost. Dennison finished third, with 5 won and 2 lost. Case was next, with 4 won and 2 lost. Cincinnati finished with 3 won and 3 lost.

Eddie Donalds and "Irish" Conwell expect to leave in March for Waco, Texas, where they will again play next season. They had a fine year with this club last year and helped to bring another pennant winner to Waco.

Scout Billy Doyle has organized a number of teams and has formed a league at his Big League on Chillicothe street. The indoor ball game has become very popular.

TO BUILD TEAM AROUND SIX REGULARS

Wilson, Nutter, Williams, Shoemaker, Thomas and Coleman are six regulars on the P. H. S. eleven left to build a team around next season. Nutter, Wilson and Coleman have two years experience. Williams, Shoemaker and Thomas played as regulars this year. Grassman will make a good third man next season. Geiger and classic, experienced gridiron men, will probably be in the depot next year. Marling has played as a sub for two seasons. Broadwater, Flood, Tom Williams, Clayton, Jones, Stravel, Quinn and Gehres practiced hard this year to make the regular team. All stand a good chance of making the first team in 1916.

GETS RETURN MATCH

Pat McCoy, who met unexpected defeat at the hands of Paul Newman a few nights ago, will go to the mat for a return wrestling match with McCoy at the same Officers street hall next Monday night. Charles Kieglar will likely referee the match.

Warriors To Name Captain

Next week the high school warriors will face the camera and be "shot."

Within the next ten days the lettered men will hold a meeting and elect a captain for next year. The lettered men have no say in who is to be captain.

DEE YORK IS MUCH BETTER

The York of the P. H. S. is able to hold his own without crutches. He will soon be on the gym floor flipping the basketball into the baskets. York is counted on as one of the mainstays of the high school quintet.

Will Not Be "Sweated"

In making up the list of players to receive their letter, Dee York was overlooked. He will get his letter, although he never played a game. He had his ankle broken in practice, which kept him from being a regular in the backfield. Lack of funds in the treasury means that no sweaters will be given the players this year.

Eyes Of Football World Focused On Army And Navy Game

New York, Nov. 27.—The Army and Navy football teams meet in this city today in the twentieth contest between eleven representing the Navy and Military Academies since the series began in 1890. The service game will, as in past years, mark the close of the eastern gridiron season and carries additional interest this year owing to the fact a decisive result will break the tie existing at the present time between the Soldier and Sailor eleven. As the score stands tonight each academy has won nine games with one ending in a tie score.

While neither combination has shown anything remarkable in the way of football ability this fall the usual hard fought gridiron struggle is expected since the rivalry is extremely keen and the players as individuals and the teams as units throw every particle of physical power and pigskin training into the annual clash. No football classic in any portion of the country is ever played with greater earnestness or is productive of more thrills than this meeting of the Army and Navy. For this reason it attracts each season one of the most spectacular gatherings of football spectators.

The game today will be no exception for the social, service and official circles of the nation will be represented at the Polo Grounds from the Chief Executive of the United States down through the diplomatic, naval and military corps to the midshipman and lieutenant just graduated from Annapolis or West Point. President Wilson will attend in addition to a host of admirals, generals, senators, congressmen, governmental department heads, cabinet officials and representatives of foreign governments.

Based upon the advance sale of tickets and the allotments made to the competing academies, it is estimated that fully 45,000 spectators will fill every available seat in the permanent and temporary stands of the Giants' baseball park which has been turned into a football stadium for the occasion. Months ago the initial applications for seats began to arrive at the offices of the New York National League Baseball Club and long before the World's Series was finished the few thousand seats for sale by the club had been over subscribed. Today the rare set of seats in the hands of a speculator commands startling figures and sales are made at many times the face value of the coupons.

This demand for tickets proves that the popularity of the weary clash of the two eleven is not dependent upon the Navy and Army teams coming through the season to the final contest undefeated.

Neither combination has shown more than average gridiron ability this autumn and defeats have been as frequent as victories. The Middles have lost to Georgetown, Pittsburgh and North Carolina; won from Virginia Poly, Bucknell and Colby in addition to playing a tie game with Pennsylvania. The Cadets opened with a tie game against Holy Cross; won from Gettysburg, Georgetown and Maine while losing to Colgate, Villanova and Notre Dame.

SPIDERS & CORN SHUCKERS ARE VICTORIOUS AT BOWLING

The rather rude punch administered to the Spiders and Corn Shuckers by the Giant Killers and Rexalls respectively in the opening games at the Play House last evening did not phase Captains Nodder and Strittmatter worth a cent, for they rallied their forces instantly and came back like Tarzans and put the remaining two games under their hammer, which served to make them feel like they had conquered the world and the fullness thereof.

The Spiders and Giant Killers battled on alleys 2 and 3 and the latter's line-up looked rather queer from the front presented last year, when the team simply ran away with the pennant. Deceit by the powers that the Giants were entirely too strong, the team was pruned, grafted and sliced. George Wilhelm, the terror, had been sent to the assistance of the Corn Shuckers who long ago had unfurled the S. O. S. sign. Charles Ross, tiring of this part of the country, had shifted to the southland, where he is piloting an N. & W. Molly engine over the sleek rails. Captain Sheridan had been awarded Edward Campbell and Frank Baker, the "Steeple Shoonan."

However, while his team lost two out of three, Captain Sheridan is positive he has a winning aggression and with just a little more practice the remaining nine teams will have to look a little out. There is no intention on the part of this great disciple of truth to let the victory of Captain Nodder and his bunch of warriors go. "They won because they bowled more consistently," Captain Nodder setting the pace and grabbing off the high average for the evening on his particular battle ground. He was closely pursued by Dr. Tatje, who shot in rather tough luck, getting more spits than in a bottle of Red Raven. Dr. Goodwin was far for Dr. Goodwin, while Mr. Rawson, after traveling in the lowly stages, loomed up in the final game like a comet in a clear sky, getting the high mark of 146, a score he never expects to equal, much less surpass. Wade Kennedy was there or quite near all evening, rolling a careful crafty, concerted game, and one of which he was exceedingly proud. He declares, however, that he expects to increase his destructiveness from time to time, and will probably be hitting in the clean up position before many days have sunk into oblivion.

While Captain Sheridan was high man for his team, nevertheless he is not going to hang his scores on the Christmas tree. Charley Badler was second best, and showed that his eye had not lost its cunning nor his hand its dexterity. Dallas Leamon and Ed Riekey were almost fit for bat, Leamon getting the bat. Ed Campbell rolled like a cinch in the opening game and then subsided, although he was not at all abashed by his effort in the sandwich game. Frank Baker, well liked and gentleman, put a pin in the prediction that Mr. Baker is going to blossom into a bowler of skill and deadly execution. Riekey has been years since the shoeman has seen an alley, let alone fondle a ball. His work last night showed that he had the makings of a great artist and Captain Sheridan would not trade him right now for some of the alleged stars of the league.

Out on alleys 4 and 5 a perfect din of noise was forthcoming at all times, aided and abetted by Captain Nodder of the Spiders, who seemed to be a battery of bag pipes, and whose voice was just as strong at the finish as when he began to unlimber his guns. William Briggs, lead off man for the Corn Shuckers, had a fairly good night, while Salem Shaw was mightily pleased over his work. Ralph Marling had one of his biggest nights and is now being accused of having used Sunnyside as a bowling alley. H. M. Baker showed that his lay off had not increased his effectiveness, while Captain Strittmatter was all at sea in the opening game, coming back, however, like a thoroughbred. George Wilhelm was a bear out for fair, getting the high average of the evening and helping land the last two games.

President Keyes, who has been elevated to the important post of lead off man for the Rexalls, was the boss pin lumber of the evening, gathering five straight strikes in the opening game, and being kept out of the 200 circle because of a split. Merle Duhitt did fine for Merle. Captain Wurster seemed to weaken under the pace and had an extremely bad night. William Hazlebeck was on the job and showed up strong for a beginner. His score of 140 has long ago been deposited in the Royal strong box and he expects to exhibit it to his grandchildren. Walter Schuyler was just fair, although he held on his end in great style. Pearl Crumston had a hard time finding the range, but went like a quarter horse, once started. The scores:

Hart is a grand football player, and next year will go to Northwestern University, at Chicago, and very likely will participate in the games of this university against the other Big Nine Conference eleven."

"Lefty" Hartwig In Colorado

Friends of Edward J. "Lefty" Hartwig will regret to learn that he has been compelled to seek the salubrious climate of Colorado in the hopes of recovering his health, which has not been of the best since last spring. Hartwig has located at Wheat Ridge, Colorado, where he is leading the simple life.

No more popular player ever wore a Portsmouth uniform than Hartwig and it is the sincere wish of his legion of friends here that the glorious climate of Colorado will restore him to his former good health. Hartwig did not play professionally last year and the year previous to this he was with the Lexington Colts and won many games for the Kentuckians. He was always a hard, conscientious worker and a credit to the game. His home is in Monroe, Mich., and while he was a member of the local team he won a big percentage of his games.

BETTING FAVORS ARMY IN TODAY'S BIG BATTLE

New York, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Men who govern and guard the nation are here in thousands today to see the annual football game played by West Point and Annapolis. Streets and hotels are gay with the Gold and Gray of the Army and the blue and gold of the Navy. Admirals and generals, cabinet members, senators and representatives are as much in evidence as policemen. It is estimated that 35,000 persons came from outside the city to see the contest. The great double decked stands at the Brush Stadium, where the major league baseball clubs play baseball all summer, began to gather a brilliant throng before two o'clock, where the rival eleven were thronged with game. The gridiron had been groomed to billiard table smoothness and its condition comforted the adherents of the Navy, who hoped for a fast dry field that would give the Middles opportunity for the best defense against the heavy line plunging tactics expected of the cadets.

Betting favored the Army on its record. Early comers waited expectantly for the arrival of President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, who left Washington this morning. A considerable portion of the president's cabinet, including Secretary Daniels, of the navy, and Secretary Garrison of the war department, arrived here this morning. The corridors of the two hotels where the rival eleven made their headquarters were thronged with gray-haired alumni of Annapolis and West Point.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Lesson IX.—Fourth Quarter, For
Nov. 28, 1915.

Text of the Lesson, Amos v. 1-15.
Memory Verses, 14, 15—Golden Text, Jer. xxiii, 28—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The message of Jonah was to gentles, suggestive of foreign missions, that of Amos was to Israel, and therefore a home mission lesson reminding us of the need of the church today to be awakened to see her privileges and opportunities and responsibilities. The slaves of Israel and her needs were not different from those of believers now.
They bore the name of Jehovah, but were false to Him and worshipped idols.
"They knew not to do right, said the Lord" (Am. 10). There was self and sin in all their worship. Therefore the Lord said, "Offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with leaven." "For this liketh ye" (Am. 4, 5). Leaven is always a type of evil. Because of the sin in their professed worship of God He said, "I hate, I despise your feast-days." I will not accept nor regard your offerings (Am. 5, 21-23). Although they outwardly kept new moons and Sabbath days their hearts were longing for them to be over that they might sell corn and wheat and grow rich by fraud, giving small measure and taking in us much money as possible (Am. 8, 4, 5).

Consider the growing rich by fraud that abounds today even among those who hold high positions in the church, the oppression of the poor, the formality in worship, the false teaching that all are children of God, that Jesus Christ was only one of the sons of God, better than the others, but not God; that there is no hell, no lake of fire; that if people are not saved in this life they can be in the next and that a God of love will never allow any one to perish eternally; the Bible cannot be taken literally, it does not mean what it says—consider all these horrible things and then think how God in His mercy sent forth a Daniel Crawford from the heart of Africa and a William Sunday from the baseball field to show His people their sins and to uphold the honor of His word.

How does the Lord plead by Amos?
He rebuked them how He had brought them out of Egypt, led them forty years in the wilderness, given them the lands of others, raised up prophets and Nazarenes from among their sons and revealed to them His purpose by His prophets (Am. 10, 11; Am. 7, 12, 7), therefore He would have them seek Him and live, assuring them of an abundant pardon if only they would turn to Him with the whole heart (Am. 4, 6, 14; Isa. 47, 6, 7). He also pointed them upward, as He always did and still does, to the future glory, for in spite of all the sin of Israel it is the purpose of God to restore Israel and bless all nations through them. He will raise up the tabernacle of David (Am. 9, 11), and James said that would be after He had gathered the church, or, as he put it, taken out of the Gentiles a people for His name.
Then he said that all the Gentiles would after that be gathered (Acts 15, 13-15). Note how in the very last words of Amos' prophecy the Lord said that He would bring again the captivity of Israel, that they would build their waste cities and inhabit them; that He would plant them upon their land and that they would no more be pulled up out of it (Am. 9, 13-15). Abraham was encouraged and sustained by the assurance of the city—Moses by the recompense of the reward. David by the kingdom, Paul by the glory to be revealed and our Lord Himself by the joy set before Him. I know of no way by which the church of today can be turned from its worldliness and indifference so successfully as by setting clearly before her the great love of God in Christ Jesus, the greatness of the salvation He has provided and the glory of the kingdom to which we are called.

Men are trying to remedy the evils that exist, to reform or uplift the race, to bring a kingdom of peace on earth by their own efforts, but "they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they His counsel" (Am.
4, 12). They do not know that the babe of Bethlehem was born to rule in Israel and that there can be no kingdom of peace on earth till He shall come again (Am. 9, 24). People are so filled with their own thoughts and ways, just as Israel was, that they will not be agreed with God and therefore cannot walk with Him (Amos 10, 3).
Because many preachers in pulpits and teachers in seminaries are turning away from God to the wisdom of men there is a famine of hearing the words of the Lord (Amos 8, 11). As in the last lesson, those who have knowledge of God are disobedient and asleep and must be awakened. As it is written in Eph. 5, 14, "Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light." "Be not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is" (Eph. 5, 17, 18). "It is high time to awake out of sleep, for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand" (Rom. 13, 11, 12).
The whole world lies in the wicked one; it is an evil age from which the Lord desires to deliver us (1 John 2, 18; Gal. 1, 4). All things indicate as ever before that the end of this evil age is near and that it is a time to be specially separated unto God from all evil and unbelief.

PLEASANT GREEN BAPTIST

Tenth and Findlay

Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Subject, "Amos, the Fearless Prophet"

Amos 5:1-15

Morning worship at 11 o'clock.

Subject, "Christian Patriotism."

Afternoon service at 2:30 p. m.

At this service the church and its friends will hold Memorial services in honor of the late Brother T.
Washington.

B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p. m. Subject, "Home Mission Conditions in

The Great Preaching Mission

The greatest organized movement looking to the salvation of souls ever launched in America, will be inaugurated at All Saints church in this city tomorrow, and in thousands of other churches from Maine to California and from the Great Lakes to the Florida Keys.

For commencing with Sunday, and for eight days afterwards, practically all parishes of the Episcopal church in this country will be visited by a Mission Priest, who will conduct what is known officially as the Nation-Wide Preaching Mission.

The object of the mission may be briefly stated in the following words, which form part of the Call to the Whole Church issued by the General Convention.

"To save the home from the devastating blight of lightly esteemed marital vows and the course of divorce, to save commerce from selfishness and the atrophy of every fine feeling of justice and fair play, to recover the purity of social habit, contaminated and debauched by indif-ferences that are indecent and soul-destroying, to demand in every place of public trust the discharge of obligations in the interest of the whole people; in fine, to assault the entrenched and arrogant evils of our day and to cleanse every precinct unhallowed by emboldened vice, this is the heroic task set for the prophet who carries his Lord's credentials."

The rallying cry of the mission is "the nation must be saved for God." No greater challenge to the hosts of evil has ever been uttered in the history of religion.

The Nation-Wide Preaching Mission is worthy of the great church which conceived it. A program of the services to be held at the old parish church of All Saints follows.

All Christians are invited to attend the mission. What the history of the organized religious effort of the century shall be written in years to come, this mission will stand out pre-eminent as the greatest work for God, conceived and carried out in 1915.

SOCIETY

The K. K. K. gave Miss Mildred Purdon a delightful surprise last evening at her home on Eighth street, to welcome her home from the O. W. U. Delaware, for her Thanksgiving vacation. All the members and their young men friends gathered at the home of Miss Florence Daehler, a few doors below the Purdon home, and together they went to the Purdon home. The surprise was complete and the evening was spent in music and guessing contests. Miss Anna Tracy and Miss Audrey Nourse won the boxes of candy in the contest. The pleasures were followed by refreshments. Those present were: Misses Margaret Quinn, Alta Marsh, Edna Korth, Anna Tracy, Florence Daehler, Louise Gibbs, Bess Huddleston, Margaret Anderson, Audrey Nourse, Erna Jenkins, Messrs. Vaughn Finney, John Blum, Edward McNamara, Charles Atkinson, of Columbus, William Quinn, Vance Alexander, Massie Foley, William Dupre, Homer Wilson, Paul Gable, Robert Nuttall. Miss Erna Jenkins was the only guest present besides the club members.

Mrs. Win. Graves, of 1124 Monroe street, has received word of the marriage last Saturday, at Toledo, of her daughter, Miss Leona Graves, to Shirley C. Matheny, an electrician of that city. The bride, who formerly lived here, is coming home soon for a visit.

Misses Emma Brown, Sadie Shum, and Mrs. Ella Osborn spent Thanksgiving at Miss Shum's home in Quincy, Ky.

Miss Emma Densmore spent Thanksgiving at her home in Quincy, Ky.

Mrs. Lewis Adams and daughters, Misses Anna and Helena, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shively, of Reshtown.

Miss Minnie Carley, stenographer of the Reliable Engine Company, spent Thanksgiving at her home in Lucasville.

Mr. Howard Scott, of the Sells Shoe Company, spent Thanksgiving at his home in Quincy, Ky.

SPECIAL TO WOMEN

The most economical, cleansing and germicidal of all antiseptics is

Paxtine

A soluble Antiseptic Powder to be dissolved in water as needed.

As a medicinal antiseptic for douches in treating catarrh, inflammation or ulceration of nose, throat, and that caused by feminine ill it has no equal. For ten years the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. has recommended Paxtine in their private correspondence with women, which proves its superiority. Women who have been cured say it is "worth its weight in gold." At drugstore, 10c. large box, or by mail, Paxtine Toilet Co., Boston, Mass.

TIMES SERVICE PATTERN

1489. A unique and charming design.

Ladies' costume with body lining. Figured suiting in green and brown mixture is here combined with green velvet. The model is good for other combinations and lends itself nicely to tulle, lamé, or silk. In black or blue tulle, with vest and sleeves of crepe de chine, a very lovely dress could be created. The sleeves may be set in at the lining, and the waist finished in over blouse style. The sleeves are long and close fitting below the elbow. The pattern is cut in 6 sizes, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. It requires 10 yards of 44-inch material for a single size. The skirt measures 36 yards at the lower edge.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

CAUTION—Order adult patterns by number of pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, and waist measure for skirt patterns. For Misses and Children give number of pattern and age only.

CAUTION

This pattern will be sent on receipt of 10 cents. Make your name, address, etc., plain. Send to: Pattern Department, Portsmouth Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Dear Miss Wise—Would it be perfectly all right for me to ask a young gentleman to go to an entertainment with me? I have in mind a young man whom I go with quite often, and I think he will be glad to go.

South Portsmouth, Ky.—Dear Miss Wise—Will you please tell me a good way to clean a child's white stuff, also a receipt for making a couple of tickets, or else drop the one document, one teaspoon full of light now and then that you would like to attend such and such an entertainment.

Dear Dolly—There are some girls who are always saying bad things about me. What should I do to make them stop? GIRL READER, 12 yrs.

Pay no attention to them, if their remarks are unkind, and if they are, don't do things that will call for criticism.

Dear Dolly—I have been keeping my relatives and out-of-town friends company with a fellow until about six months ago, when he got mad. My educated friends say that I am because I went with other fellows, very talented, but, to my sorrow, I But I didn't do it to be mean, have not been able to cultivate any. Now when we meet each other I hold talents. Can you suggest some plan my head in the air and will nor whereby I can attend a girl's board-school to him. I think very much of him. Do you think I could him. Please tell me what I can do make my expenses by doing light to renew our friendship. I think he work out of school hours? If so, likes me and would speak if I would, what kind of work would you suggest? I am an athletic girl and am intensely interested in all kinds of sports, but I am not strong enough to do heavy work. I have not done any kind of such work yet, and I would be willing to only if it would mean the realization of my greatest wish.

Dear Miss Dolly—I am a young girl 16 years old. Do you think I am too young to keep steady company? Do you think a girl of 16 is too young to be engaged to be married? I am not going to be married until I am 21. Do you think a girl would be all right in place of my own? I am in the seventh grade school. How is my writing? Are they going to wear white coats this winter?

If so, likes me and would speak if I would, what kind of work would you suggest? I am an athletic girl and am intensely interested in all kinds of sports, but I am not strong enough to do heavy work. I have not done any kind of such work yet, and I would be willing to only if it would mean the realization of my greatest wish.

Dear Miss Dolly—I have been keeping my relatives and out-of-town friends company with a fellow until about six months ago, when he got mad. My educated friends say that I am because I went with other fellows, very talented, but, to my sorrow, I But I didn't do it to be mean, have not been able to cultivate any. Now when we meet each other I hold talents. Can you suggest some plan my head in the air and will nor whereby I can attend a girl's board-school to him. I think very much of him. Do you think I could him. Please tell me what I can do make my expenses by doing light to renew our friendship. I think he work out of school hours? This design of which one quarter is given, should be stamped on medium heavy linen. Take care to keep the center point the same for each successive tracing to complete design. First work all bars in buttonhole stitch on a foundation of several stitches back and forth. Then outline design in a small running stitch for greater strength. Over this stitch work the button hole stitch, putting to edge, to be cut later. This stitch should catch in the foundation stitch of each bar. Do seeds and blossom ends of pomegranates in satin stitch; all lines contained within the buttonhole spaces should be done in fine outline. Last of all cut linen from under bars. Use mercerized cotton No. 20. The design for a runner to match this design has already been given.

DIRECTIONS FOR TRANSFERRING

In taking off these patterns, by a piece of impression paper upon the material, place the newspaper pattern over this, and with a hard, sharp pencil draw firmly over each line. If the material is sheer it may be laid over the pattern and drawn off with pencil, as the design will show through.

No patterns of these designs are available.

Almost anything is good for Sunday night supper—just see that you have plenty of it. A salad made of meat or chicken, and sandwiches of nuts and apples mixed with mayonnaise makes a good combination. Serve either tea or chocolate and cake. Olives and pickles, of course go with this kind of a supper.

WOODMEN PLANNING TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

River City Camp, No. 29, Woodmen of the World, will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of its founding on the evening of December 17th with appropriate exercises.

A committee was appointed, headed by Jacob Kuhl, a charter member, as chairman, with the following other members: C. C. Miltland, William Hyland, Geo.

W. Clifford and Roy McElhenny. Prominent Woodmen from all over the state will be secured to deliver addresses. Among those being considered are George A. Breiel, of Cincinnati, Col. Louis Stoffel and William Reuss, of Cleveland, and George A. Ditty, of Columbus.

Three candidates were admitted into the mysteries of the order in the usual impressive manner. The three new members are: C. M. Meyoung, C. Baskett and Scott Duncan. The applications of four others were favorably considered.

The meeting next Friday evening will be featured by the nomination of officers for the coming year.

Made Neat Sum

The Ben Hur Marine Club made a neat sum Friday evening from the benefit show given at the Strand theatre on Lawson street. Miss Alma Davis, well known vocalist sang.

To Elect Tonight

The annual election of officers of Concord Grange will be held this evening at the Grange Hall in Wheelersburg. A large attendance of the members is looked for.

Secretaryship Of M. W. of A. Sought By Many Candidates

Six candidates are actively in the race for clerk of Portsmouth Camp, No. 3993, Modern Woodmen of America, to succeed L. A. Zueker, city auditor elect, whose successor will be elected next Friday evening at the annual election. The contest is a spirited one, although friendly, and the candidates are affecting all of the methods of political candidates in their effort to line up sufficient votes to land the office.

The six candidates who are in the field are: H. E. Puckett, captain of the degree team; Ralph Ruggles, Beaver Dodds, J. R. Hooper, Wesley Bauer and W. T. Mackey. The winner will have to secure the majority of all votes cast, and several ballots may have to be taken before the race is decided.

Eugene Pierce is tipped as the successful candidate for consul, the presiding officer, to succeed T. C. Patterson, the present incumbent, who has held that office for two successive years.

A luncheon will be served at the close of the election, a committee consisting of Eugene Pierce, Don Jewell and J. R. Hooper, having been named last evening to have charge of the arrangements. One candidate, William Odell, was initiated into the order last evening. The members were entertained after the meeting with a piano selection by W. F. Smith, a visiting brother of Cincinnati. It was announced during the meeting that W. F. Farran, of Star Yard, a tubercular violin, would be sent to the Woodmen Sanitarium at Colorado Springs, Colorado, for treatment.

HAD SUDDEN ATTACK

Walter Stont of the Feazel grocery, Sciotoville, suffered a severe attack of acute indigestion Thursday, it being necessary to call the family physician. He was much better Saturday.

Five Stands In The Market

The week-end markets in government square are beginning to fall off in attendance. Saturday morning at 7 o'clock found but five stands there.

"Phony" Jewelry Man Sent Out Of The City

Joe Miller, a phony jewelry vender, who was arrested Friday night for the second time this week and charged with drunkenness, was ordered banished from the city Saturday.

Officer Joe Stokley escorted Miller to the ferry landing. A local business man who had interested himself in Miller to the extent of fitting him out in new clothes, securing employment and a boarding place for him, refused to have anything further to do with him.

Van "Yaller" Lotell, who while drunk appropriated Walter Bagby's push cart for hauling some window weights, was fined $5. The cart was returned to the owner. A. T. McLean was the name given by a railroad fireman, who while jagged, had disturbed a religious meeting at the R. R. Y. M. C. A. building Friday night. He was fined $5. John Shaw, a strange negro, whose personal effects consisted of a pair of dice, was given the minimum of $5 and ordered put to work on the streets.

Yesterday afternoon the East Enders and the All Stars pulled off a double header at the First Presbyterian gym. Both games were of the fastest kind of basketball. The feature during both contests was the high-class passing displayed by the East Enders. A change in the rules this year eliminates all personal contact of the players, and puts a ban on the old method of the players bumping one another, thus keeping the game fast.

In the first game the East Enders barely came out ahead in the first half, the score being 10 to 7. At the start of the second half they gained a big lead due to the goal shooting of Williams and Doll. L. Davis was the point getter for the All Stars, nine of their fourteen points being credited to him. The final score was East End 27, All Stars 14.

SEEKS MAYOR FOR ADVICE

A woman said to be Mrs. Pearl Carpenter made inquiry of the mayor Friday of the amount that a husband is required to contribute to the support of a wife and child. It developed from her conversation that her husband is employed at Fire Brick, Ohio, that she herself just came overfrom Kentucky and hesitated about accompanying him to his place of employment, preferring to remain in the city, she claimed. The mayor told her that any judge would advise her that she would have to go where her husband could earn a living for his family.

RED MEN NOMINATE

The heavy downpour of rain Friday night failed to dampen the ardor of Red Men and there was a goodly turn out of the warriors hold at the weekly pow-wow of Seneca Tribe No. 17, Friday night.

Nomination of officers was held and resulted as follows:

Thomas Whitt, prophet; Wayne Allen, sachem; Samuel Newman, senior sagamore; George Sachs, junior sagamore; John Reg, chief of record; John Richter, collector of wampum; Charles Hester, keeper of wampum; John Richter, representative to great council;

SIX APPLICATIONS WERE RECEIVED

Six new applications for membership were acted upon at the regular weekly meeting of Portsmouth Court, Tribe of Ben Hur, Friday night.

The greatest enemy of your teeth

When scientists recently discovered the cause of that dread disease, pyorrhea, they discovered the greatest enemy of your teeth. Why guess? Because the germ that causes this disease inhabits every human mouth!

Your dentist will tell you that half of all the permanent teeth lost are lost from this disease. This is because people have not realized before that everyone should take precautions against this enemy. You can start now to ward off its constant attack and escape the terrible results of this disease by using the proper corrective and preventive treatment in your daily toilet.

To meet the need for this treatment and to enable everyone to take precautions against this disease, a prominent dentist has put his own prescription before the public in the convenient form of Seneca Tooth Paste.

Seneca contains the best corrective and preventive for pyorrhea known to dental science. Used daily it will successfully protect your teeth from this disease. Seneca also contains the best harmless agent for keeping the teeth clean and white. It has a refreshing flavor and leaves a wholesomely clean, cool and pleasant taste in the mouth.

Start the Seneca treatment tonight—full details in the folder wrapped around every tube. Symptoms described. A 25c two oz. tube is sufficient for six or eight weeks of the pyorrhea treatment. Get Seneca at your druggists today, or send 4c in stamps or coin for sample tube and folder. Address The Sentinel Remedies Co., 502 Union Central Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Waterworks Bond Ordinance Defeated

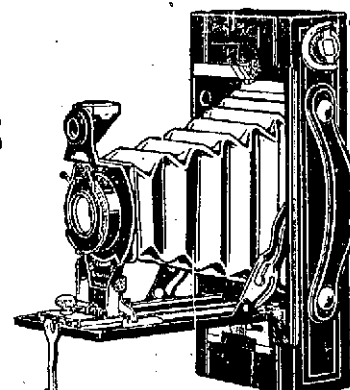

Ironton, O., Nov. 27.—The water works bond ordinance went down to defeat last night at the regular meeting of the city council, getting only three votes to four against it.

This ordinance, which called for an issue of $250,000 of water works bonds originally had the support of five members of council but at the final test, Messrs. James and Henninger, who have supported the proposition all along, voted against it. Mr. James gave as his reason for the action, not opposition to the proposition but that the incoming council should dispose of the proposition inasmuch as the bonds could not be marketed before the old council finished its work and he was opposed to any administration building the water works without the aid of a commission

IT'S GOOD ADVERTISING.

Henry Ford's spectacular peace movement in planning to spend a million or so in sending a ship load of more or less eminent persons over to Europe to tell the warring nations to quit fighting and be good, may have been born in sincerity, but still the suspicion will arise that maybe Henry had a large advertising idea in mind. Certainly it is enabling the manufacturer of the most popular low priced automobile on the market to obtain a publicity free of charge that he could not get otherwise for several millions.

As a practical matter, it is hard to see wherein any possible good could come from the proposed junket. It must be made as a private affair as to give it official standing as representing the American government would be to invite embarrassing rebuff. If the junketers ever get anywhere, they will more likely be regarded as meddlers by the officials of the countries in conflict, than be taken seriously. Could you imagine the triumphant German and Austrian rulers listening or proposing terms of peace at this time, other than terms most humiliating to the Allies? Can you imagine the Allies willing to quit now and acknowledge that they have been whipped? In the absence of any decisive battle or battles, does not peace at this time seem an impossibility?

As a matter of fact the American government is keeping in close touch with the situation in Europe. It is possessed of the inside information that Henry Ford, were he ten times more influential than he is, could not get. Whenever the time comes that an intimation from this government to mediate with a view to peace, will not be rebuffed, but will be welcomed, then it is certain that President Wilson will offer the good services of the American government, and bend every effort to bring about peace.

In the meantime, if Henry Ford is willing to pay the bills and a lot of more or less distinguished persons are willing to be his guests on a pleasant little jaunt over to Europe, we suppose there is no law to prevent it. They will not accomplish anything, and they will make this country somewhat ridiculous in the eyes of Europeans who will believe that it has the sanction of our government, regardless of the facts.

ALL IN TEN MINUTES.

Strange how much strenuousness can be crowded into ten minutes of an ordinary man's life. Here Thursday afternoon we concluded to take a little walk, with the old pumping station as the objective point. Right off the reel we bumped into a gentleman with a playful jag and had a lively scrap with him because his sense of humor prompted him to kick the little bull pup that was trailing at our heels. Next we encountered a gentleman with a boastful jag who was arguing with a woman that it was not necessary for him to go home to keep from being locked up and who insisted upon telling us as we passed that he "was a frien' to everybody" and further that if anybody doubted it he just wanted to say that he "was the best d-d man that ever come out of Kentucky," and he stood ready to prove he was a "frien' to everybody." We accepted his assertions at par and moved on to our destination. Before we got there we were hailed by a citizen laboring under intense excitement who simply notified us to tell a certain reporter on our staff that if he ever put his name in the paper again, he "was a-goin' to sit it li-l knocked outen him." We accepted this commission with enthusiasm and then decided that there was a nite too much war in the air down on the river front for a meek and humble man of peace to be at large.

THIS SINNER'S ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT.

We observe with some degree of interest the tears which are being wept over the lost and utterly undine condition of the newspapers of Pike county by brothers Sibley, of Gallia, and Taylor, of Scioto. One of these days when we have a little spare time we shall have something to say which we are presumptuous enough to believe may have such a bearing on local newspaper relations as may tend to comfort the weeping Rachels along the Ohio river. Meanwhile, we ask the brethren to pray for us.—Waverly Democrat.

Those joyous remarks upon life in general we occasionally clip from the Ohio State Journal are the product of the brain of "Bob" Ryder. We call him "Bob" because those who know him in real flesh and blood do so and he is a long ways off from Portsmouth. Of course if we were at close range and he invited us out to have a drink of mild non-intoxicating beverage with him, we would call him Mr. Ryder. He is, we are told, tall, fair and handsome as men go, and his hair is said to be red. He just jots down a column or two of paragraphs every day for the Journal and spends the rest of his time in dreaming of the life on Broadway and at the Waldorf hotel "at the expense of his kind employer."

From the enthusiasm with which the Republican press is approving the suggestion that Governor Willis accept the invitation to participate in Henry Ford's peace junket we have a suspicion that maybe there is a lingering hope that some of the warring nations of Europe will hamstring the delegation, put it in a detention camp, and keep it there, at least until after the next election.

ANOTHER TRENCH CAPTURED.

ECONOMY.

Economy is the apical column of business; the backbone of private life. Without economy none can be rich; and with it few will be poor.

Too many people define economy as parsimony. Nothing of the sort. The liberal spender is not necessarily a spendthrift—every purchase he makes may strengthen his own foundations and fill thousands of dinner pails into the bargain. A miser is guilty of the worst extravagance—he blocks out life's sunshine with the cloud of foolish frugality, and wastes his own and his money's usefulness to the world.

Economy means competence—not closeness. It means constructive buying—not destructive bargaining. It means sense—not stinginess.

The niggardly person can never be classed as a true economist. He would "spoil the ship for a h-p'orth of tar"; and "lose the horse for the sake of a lock."

The true economist knows that "nothing is cheap which is superfluous." With him, price can never constitute sufficient reason for buying that for which he has no need.

But when he does buy—whether it be materials or men—he lays on the principle that the best at the start is the cheapest in the end.

He knows that it is not nearly as hard to earn money as to spend it wisely.

The true economist is essentially a man of rare foresight and intelligence. A slack hand shows weakness—a tight one strength.

And because he is an economist in prosperity—he never fears becoming one in adversity.—From Wise Saws published by Henry G. Thompson & Son.

From the way the Pike county newspapers received the well meant mission of peace financed and fathered by Col. Sibley and ourselves we are justified in feeling about as cheerful as the man who butted in on the fight between a husband and wife. At any rate our Pike county adjective hurled took a day off from screaming at each other in order to toss a few bricks in the direction of Gallipolis and Portsmouth respectively. So far as we are concerned, we don't care what Col. Sibley may do, we have quit on the "peace angel" business. We don't care a continental hang what the Pike county newspapers say about each other hereafter. They can even commit murder and we will not shed any tears of sorrow. So go to it. You have our free and full permission.

It is claimed by many farmers that marketing facilities in Portsmouth are bad. They claim that they cannot get as much here for their produce as they can elsewhere. We are inclined to doubt this as a general proposition, but it is a subject that might well be taken up and considered by some of our commercial bodies. If there is anything wrong it can be corrected. Portsmouth should be the ideal market for all this section, and with the proper effort, this could become an established fact.

IS THIS A SLAM?

Editor Sibley, of the Gallipolis Tribune appears to be in a mental condition that is giving his friends serious concern. Lately, he has been dreaming about angels, gorgeously and gloriously arrayed and when he gave a great shout to attract the attention of Harry Taylor, of Portsmouth, to the wonderful spectacle, they all shivered away and disappeared. The end is not far away when an editor gets to dreaming about angels.—Waverly Democrat.

The thing that is worrying us is, does Editor Johnson mean to infer that Sibley's angels refused to associate with us, and if so on what grounds? Of course we know that any angels that would ornament and decorate Sibley's dreams would be mighty exclusive, but still the thought of even an exclusive angel running away when we came hustling up to enjoy the beauty of the spectacle, is a blow that is hard to endure.

There is a man in this county who has a good many gallons of real, genuine, home made sorghum molasses, and he wants a market for it. Anybody know how or where he can dispose of his product. We will pass along the information to him.

Let us suggest to you that you will do well to begin looking for that Christmas present right now. The selection is better, is not pawed over and you will have time to look around so that you will be thoroughly satisfied.

One of our little after-sorrowers of the Thanksgiving holiday is that we are worried as to what became of the man who always bitherto got his brief and fleeting but highly satisfactory stay in the spotlight of national publicity by sending a turkey to the White House.

Municipal ownership of public utilities got a jolt when Mayor Baker, of Cleveland, came out in an interview and advocated the sale of the city light plant of that metropolis. It has not paid, and if Cleveland could not make it pay other cities would have small chance of anything but an annual deficit.

That gentleman who prophesied the longest and coldest winter in a century seems to have been just clay like the rest of 'em, including Tom Calvert's pigs, Herb Coriell and Billy Butlin.

"The $300 automobile is coming," says an exchange. "Think of the humiliation it will be to a dignified citizen to find himself climbing a telephone pole to get out of the way of a $300 automobile!"—Marion Star.

One of the added pleasures of being invited out to dinner on Thanksgiving day is that you drop the acquaintance of Mr. Turkey right then and there and do not have him served up a la bake, a la hash, etc., for several days.

BE CAREFUL LITTLE GIRL.

Yes, little girl, that bare throat of yours is very pretty and white and altogether fascinating. The cold wind doesn't even change the color a little bit, nor the snow drops chill the exposed breastbone. The December breezes play about your swan-like neck in mildest glee and you look "so cute."

But, say, isn't Pneumonia liable to take a fancy to your loveliness and grasp that lovely throat and through it send germs of death to feed upon your lungs? "Death loves a shining mark" and has an eye on your reckless vanity. And before long your friends may be called upon to remark, "How natural she looks!" "She has such a pretty neck!" And your closed eyes will not see nor your deaf ears hear—Maysville Independent.

Another pathetic little feature of everyday life is the way a woman will stew around and regard her dinner as an absolute failure just because she thinks there ought to have been another lump of butter the size of a walnut in the mashed potatoes, although not another person at the table noticed the omission at all or so much as suspected it.—Ohio State Journal.

Sometimes it pays not to be too neat. A New York man, who had not cleaned up his desk in several years, found some forgotten Bethlehem Steel shares which he sold for $18,000. If he had kept his desk tidy, he probably would have unloaded them for about $200.—Indianapolis Star.

Perhaps it was Colonel Roosevelt's remark about "I and my four sons" that gave rise to the story that he started to organize a small army to fight Germany at the time of the Lusitania outrage.—Springfield Republican.

O-O-MEINTYRE.

New York, November 27.—Not which looks down Broad street all of those fellows who pull the folding around it just now is for raled by the Broadway managers. There for instance, is Dean George Kirchwey, of the Columbia Law School. He might be regarded also as the dean of pedagogic wits.

The other morning one of his classes grow impatient because a lecture ran slightly over the stated hour. There was shuffling of feet, fake coughing and a general manifestation of a desire to get out in the open air.

Finally several students arose and moved toward the cloak room. "Wait just a minute," said Prof. Kirchwey. "Don't go just yet. I have a few more pearls to cast."

It looks as if the father of his country, grieved by the public weakness for ammunition stocks, had decided to let his people have a chance at the shell game as something more honest. That is why the brokers smile.

Rube Goldberg, the cartoonist, has a new office boy. He has been on the job just two weeks. A friend breezed in one afternoon recently and inquired how the boy was doing.

"Oh fine," was the retort. "He's got things so mixed up that I couldn't possibly get along without him."

Mollie Fancher, of Gates Avenue, Brooklyn, is about to celebrate her golden wedding. Her wedding celebration however is quite different from most others. She has been an invalid for 50 years and says she is wedded to suffering.

Not once in the half century has she stirred from the little white bed in the rear of her home. Years ago it was claimed that she laid in a trance nine years, taking no food and for a period blind and paralyzed, without speech or hearing.

Here is a nut for the eugenists to crack. Children of foreign born parents in New York, so statistics show, have a better chance of surviving the period of infancy than of children of native parents. The infant mortality figures for 1914 show that of every 1,000 children of native white parentage 44 boys and 35 girls do not reach their fifth year, while for the offspring of aliens the figures are only 39 and 32 respectively.

Harry Leon Wilson, who preaches Monterey, California, to New York and proves it, by living there the year around, has joined in the revival of the brave songs of an elder day. He remembers when "Jim Fisk Never Went Back on the Poor" was the most popular song. Just now sentimental songs are an fait.

The three suits of the month deal with sentiment. They are "All I Can Do is Just Love You," "Don't Bite The Hand That's Feeding You" and "Mother—a Word That Means the World to Me."

"My Departed Friend"

The sun was setting with its beautiful benediction on a perfect day, as I stood in a city of the dead. Before me, in its shroud, lay the lifeless form of a very dear friend, one who tried hard, meant well, and failed much in life.

This is true of all humanity. Though their lives are crowned with reward, when health fails, friends forget and life after all ends in failure, so far as this life goes.

In my reverie I asked the question, is this the end? Is this the last of my friend? Nay, in the sun's last rays, as they kissed the western sky and disappeared into the night, I could read in shining letters the birth of another day, brighter and more prosperous than the one just gone.

Near me stood a rose, fading and dying in the chill and hazy autumn, only to be born again with the April shower and the sunny May day to sway in the breeze to the music of the song bird's sweetest lay, more fragrant and beautiful than before.

These two emblems of eternal life convince us of the future life of man and in due time my friend will come forth with all the splendor and perfection of the rose, into that new life that has no failures.

The Editor's Birthday

Thirty-eight years ago last Saturday the cross-eyed pilot of this column first came to this beautiful little spot, so nicely situated in the midst of the lemon extract diet, where it is dry both by law and by nature. Hints to Hunters Deer do not wear red hunting jackets. Rabbits have no horns and do not wear cow bells. The words "No Trespassing" sometimes mean just what they imply.

If the gun is used as a walking stick, it should be trailed muzzle down.

The habit of carrying the gun checked sometimes leads to accidents. If there is any doubt as to the identity of a moving object, the hunter should not shoot before it of an elder day. He remembers when "Jim Fisk Never Went Back on the Poor" was the most popular song. Just now sentimental songs are an fait.

MORE U. S. SOLDIERS ON BORDER

ONE IS KILLED, TWO WOUNDED IN A SKIRMISH WITH VILLA MEN

Nogales, Ariz., Nov. 27.—With night in reports that members of the evacuation of Nogales, Sonora, by General Villa's forces, and the arrival here today of an additional 1200 infantrymen to reinforce the border troops at this point, residents of this town expressed a feeling of security such as had not been enjoyed since Villa forces took possession of Nogales, Sonora, following their defeat at Agua Prieta.

There was evidence of renewed confidence in every quarter and the belief was generally expressed that should there be a recurrence of the exciting events of yesterday, when Villa snipers fired into American territory from the Mexican side, killing one United States soldier and wounding two others, it would be met with prompt and vigorous response.

The troops scheduled to arrive today compose a provisional brigade made up from the seventh and twentieth regiments of United States infantry stationed at Douglas, Ariz.

Herbert L. Cates, private in Company I of the twelfth infantry, was the most seriously hurt of the two wounded American soldiers. He is shot in the abdomen. An operation performed last night was reported to have resulted satisfactorily and it is believed that he has an even chance to recover. Arthur L. Saupé, private in the same company, was shot in the right foot.

The dead American soldier was Stephen Little, 22 years old, who also was a member of Company I. His home was in Fairmount, N. C.

Evidence that any attempt at looting in Nogales, Sonora, during the occupation of that town on the Mexican side of the border by Carranza forces would be summarily dealt with was conveyed to the American side last

INVESTIGATE FIRE ON STEAMER

Bordeaux, France, Nov. 27.—An inquiry has been begun by the government to ascertain the cause of the fire on board the British steamer, S. S. Barkdale, which arrived here yesterday from New York with a cargo of horses and cotton. The barkdale was several days out when the fire was observed emerging from the hold. The hatches were closed and the fire made little progress. The arrival here the hold was opened and flooded. Only one hundred bales of cotton were destroyed.

ALLIED TROOPS CONTINUE TO LAND AT SALONIKI

London, Nov. 27.—Allied troops continue to land at Saloniki in large numbers. A Reuter dispatch filed yesterday at Saloniki says that important reinforcements reached on Thursday and were landed immediately. After the occupation of Pristina by the Austrians and Germans the message says the main body of Serbians retreated in a southerly direction. The Serbians were unable to maintain their positions in the Katchanik region, owing to the greatly superior forces of the invaders. Official announcement has been made to the commanders of the allied troops at Saloniki of the guarantees given by the Greek government relative to freedom of action of their armies.

THE SERBIAN FORCES SOON WILL BE ARMY WITHOUT A COUNTRY

London, Nov. 27.—The Serbians soon will become an army without a country, unless the French should defeat the Bulgarians, four divisions of whom are said to be hammering at the French lines. Reports arrive from various sources that Montenegro has been surrounded by Bulgarians and that they may not wait for their Austro-German allies before entering the Macedonian Capital.

The main Serbian army retreating in a southerly direction before Field Marshal Von Mackensen's troops may find no rest, even in Greek territory, as it is reported here that the invaders of Serbia would not hesitate to cross into Greece.

Apparently the German leaders expect the Serbians and their allies will await attack in Greece. It is said these operations will be under the supreme command of Field Marshal Von Mackensen.

Additional reports from the battles at Ctesipon in Mesopotamia near Bagdad indicate that the British forces won a substantial success instead of suffering a reverse as first accounts led every one to believe.

The diplomatic representatives at Athens of the entente powers are still active, their latest effort to settle definitely all outstanding questions being the presentation to Premier Skouloudis of a note detailing measures deemed indispensable for the security and freedom of action of the allied troops.

The situation along the Rumanian frontier, where a great Russian force is said to have been gathered, is still obscure. The display by the Rumanian public of feeling in favor of the entente is regarded in London as an indication that the nation is in a position to disregard the demands of the central powers.

No definite news has been received of the renewed Austro-German offensive in Galicia. It is expected, however, that this movement will be pushed energetically for the political effect on Rumania.

MADE MONEY ON RACE
Chicago, Nov. 27.—Bicycle riders who competed in the six day race here left for New York today to prepare for a six day event which starts on Dec. 4.

Because of the success of the local event another race probably will be staged early in the spring. Promoters said the profit was between $5,000 and $6,000.

BRITISH WIN OVER TURKS NEAR BAGDAD

London, Nov. 27.—The battle position as they took possession of Ctesipon for the second time. The British troops at once began the work of clearing the Turkish trenches which were filled with dead and wounded soldiers. The British captured a large quantity of arms and ammunition in addition to the 1300 prisoners previously reported.

Ctesipon has been the scene of many fateful battles. The ancient city was besieged and plundered a dozen times by Greek and Roman invaders from the east before the Arabs finally checked it.

PRESIDENT AND HIS PARTY TO SEE ARMY-NAVY FOOTBALL GAME

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Wilson and party left here early today for New York to witness the Army-Navy football game. The party occupied two private cars attached to a regular train. Accompanying the president were Mrs. Norman Galt, Mr. Wilson's fiancée, Mrs. William H. Bolling, Mrs. Galt's mother; Mrs. Bertha Bolling, Mrs. Galt's sister; Secretary and Mrs. McAdoo, Mrs. Anne Howe, the president's sister; Mrs. Anne Cothran, a daughter of Mrs. Howe and her little daughter, Miss Josephine Cothran; Secretary Tamm and Dr. Cary T. Grayson, the White House physician. At the game the president will sit first in a box on the navy side of the field and on the army side during the second half.

The president will spend the night and probably tomorrow with his personal friend, Col. E. M. House. He will return to Washington Monday.

PEACE ADVOCATES ARE OPTIMISTIC

Washington, Nov. 27.—Prominent advocates who are behind a movement for a conference of neutral nations to be called in an effort to end the European war, expressed themselves as optimistic today over their plans.

A delegation representing the movement saw President Wilson yesterday in an effort to induce him to give it his support, but the president was non-committal. One of the women said afterwards, however, that she believed the president was deeply impressed with the information laid before him, adding: "I think you will hear something from the White House before very long."

Although the president will make no announcement regarding the conference with the women, his position is that he as yet had no word from Europe which would lead him to believe that the time was opportune for him to take any step.

New York, Nov. 27.—The American Trans-Atlantic company, several of whose steamships have been seized by British warships under suspicion of German ownership, awaits today an answer of Secretary Lansing to its request that an American warship be sent to Buenos Ayres to convey its steamer Winnebago to this port and save her from capture by British cruisers.

French Commands Are In Hands Of Tried Men

Paris, Nov. 26.—The constant efforts of General Joffre, the French commander-in-chief, to keep the high commands in the charge of men of proved vigor and initiative and are exemplified once more by announcement in the official journal that seven division generals and three brigade generals have been transferred to the reserve.

Their places have been given to younger men who have distinguished themselves in recent operations.

Among the officers retired are General A. M. B. Duval and General Mas Latrie.

ENORMOUS FREIGHT TRAFFIC

Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 27.—Enormous shipments of freight for export continue to go east from the Pittsburgh district in spite of congested terminals at important Atlantic Seaboard points, and in yards along the various railroads between here and New York.

Railroad officials said today that every possible expedient was being used to handle the tremendous freight movement, even to the liberal expenditure of money for additional terminals.

Some such terminal near New York was secured by the Pennsylvania this week and will take care of 600 cars. No time was being lost in loading all available vessels, they said, forces being assisted by experienced transportation officials and freight handlers from Pittsburgh.

For a time it was feared some of the Pittsburgh factories, whose output is largely for export, would be compelled to shut down next Monday until the railroads could care for the freight but today railway men declared all freight was being taken and pushed through to the coast with as little delay as possible. One official said the lines were not suffering so much from lack of cars, as in the past, but from lack of track room many cars being held because it was impossible to secure dock space for the contents while waiting for vessels.

WANT TO CONVERT WILSON

New York, Nov. 27.—Officers of the congressional union for woman suffrage are wondering today how they can best make use of $1,000 contributed by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont for the express purpose of "converting" President Wilson to the support of a proposed suffrage amendment to the federal constitution. The congressional union has received a contribution of $100 to "convert" Elihu Root, who was one of their strongest opponents in the recent campaign in this state.

BREEZY BITS OF SPORT SERVED HOT FOR BUSY FANS

There is hope for the Reds. Heine Groh says that with two good pitchers, a first class catcher, two outfielders and a second sacker, the Reds will finish in the first division next season. How about a first sacker and a new mascot?

The score of 9 to 6 in favor of the Alton in the game against the Ironton H. S. team yesterday indicates that the game was hotly contested and it sure enough was. The Alumni victory proved that Wieteki, Frecka, Pinley, Verigan, Unrue and a few other old stars have not found it impossible to come back and, without practice or a clearly defined set of signals, they put up a creditable game.

We suppose that guaranteed Langford-McVey fight is warranted "fast black."

Why should they punish O. B. players who play against the Reds? To play against the Reds is generally punishment enough for O. B. players.

"Here he comes!" said one

That $12,500 offer for a fight with White makes P. Welsh one of the highest-priced dancers in the world.

"Trapshooting," we read "is the king of sports." Mebbe so, but there's more action in the trap-shooting.

Josephus Daniels, we understand, will attend the Army-Navy game. Nevertheless the Navy hopes to win.

All the details of that Red-Brave trade have been arranged except notifying Presses Gaffney and Herrmann.

Christy Mathewson has become as famous as a trapshooter as he is as a writer—but he does his own shooting.

Jim Gilmore is gum-shoeing it to Chicago—but why should we call a special session of Congress on account of it?

Cleveland, Nov. 27.—It is possible that there will be no more Reserve-Case football games. Efforts heretofore unsuccessful are being renewed for an athletic combination of the two Cleveland colleges.

Seattle, Nov. 27.—A record of eight consecutive years without a defeat was established for the University of Washington football team yesterday when the eleven defeated the University of Colorado team, 46 to 0, in the closing game of the 1915 season.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 27.—Robt. D. Peck, Jr., of Lock Haven, Pa., was elected captain of the 1916 University of Pittsburgh football team at a meeting following the game with the Pennsylvania State College here.

By defeating Case at Cleveland Thursday, Western Reserve won the Ohio Conference title, with a final standing of 6 games won and 1 lost. Miami's victory over Cincinnati placed that team second, 5 won and 1 lost. Dennison finished third, with 5 won and 2 lost. Cincinnati finished with 3 won and 3 lost.

Eddie Donalds and "Irish" Connell expect to leave in March for Waco, Texas, where they will again play next season. They had a fine year with this club last year and helped to bring another pennant winner to Waco.

Young Billy Doyle has organized a number of teams and has formed a league at his Big League on Chillicothe street. The indoor ball game has become very popular.

TO BUILD TEAM AROUND SIX REGULARS

Wilson, Nutter, Williams, Shoemaker, Thomas and Coleman are six regulars on the P. H. S. eleven left to build a team around next season. Nutter, Wilson and Coleman have two years experience. Paul Williams, Shoemaker and Thomas played as regulars this year. Grassman will make a good line man next season. Geiger and Molster, experienced gridiron players, will probably be in the game next year. Marting has played as a sub for two seasons. Broadwater, Flood, Tom Williams, Clayton, Jones, Stuebel, Quinn and Gehres practiced hard this year to make the regular team. All stand a good chance of making the first team in 1916.

GETS RETURN MATCH

Pat McCoy, who met unexpected defeat at the hands of Paul Newman a few nights ago, will go to the mat for a return wrestling match with McCoy at the same Officers street hall next Monday night. Charles Kiegler will likely referee the match.

Warriors To Name Captain

Next week the high school warriors will face the camera and be "shot."

DEE YORK IS MUCH BETTER

Dee York, of the P. H. S., is able to hobble about without crutches. He will soon be on the gym floor flipping the basket ball into the baskets. York is counted on as one of the mainstays of the high school quintet.

Will Not Be "Sweated"

In making up the list of players to receive their letter, Dee York was overlooked. He will get his letter, although he never played a game. He had his ankle broken in practice, which kept him from being a regular in the backfield. Lack of funds in the treasury means that no sweaters will be given the players this year.

Eyes Of Football World Focused On Army And Navy Game

New York, Nov. 27.—The Army and Navy football teams meet in this city today in the twentieth contest between eleven's representing the Navy and Military Academies since the series began in 1890. The service game will, as in past years, mark the close of the eastern gridiron season and carries additional interest this year owing to the fact a decisive result will break the tie existing at the present time between the Soldier and Sailor eleven's. As the score stands tonight each academy has won nine games with one ending in a tie score. While neither combination has shown anything remarkable in the way of football ability this fall the annual hard fought gridiron struggle is expected since the rivalry is extremely keen and the players as individuals and the teams as units throw every particle of physical power and pigskin training into the annual clash. No football classic in any portion of the country is ever played with greater earnestness or is productive of more thrills than this meeting of the Army and Navy. For this reason it attracts each season one of the most spectacular gatherings of football spectators. The game today will be no exception for the social, service and official circles of the nation will be represented at the Polo Grounds from the Chief Executive of the United States down through the diplomatic, naval and military corps to the midshipman and lieutenant just graduated from Annapolis or West Point. President Wilson will attend in addition to a host of admirals,

Based upon the advance sale of tickets and the allotments made to the competing academies, it is estimated that fully 45,000 spectators will fill every available seat in the permanent and temporary stands of the Giants' baseball park which has been turned into a football stadium for the occasion. Months ago the initial applications for seats began to arrive at the offices of the New York National League Baseball Club and long before the World's Series was finished the few thousand seats for sale by the club had been over subscribed. Today the rare set of seats in the hands of a speculator commands a startling figure and sales are made at many times the face value of the coupons.

This demand for tickets proves that the popularity of the weary clash of the two eleven's is not dependent upon the Navy and Army teams coming through the season to the final contest undefeated.

Neither combination has shown more than average gridiron ability this autumn and defeats have been as frequent as victories. The Middles have lost to Georgetown, Pittsburgh and North Carolina; won from Virginia Poly, Bucknell and Colby in addition to playing a tie game with Pennsylvania. The Cadets opened with a tie game against Holy Cross; won from Gettysburg, Georgetown and Maine while losing to Colgate, Villanova and Notre Dame.

SPIDERS & CORN SHUCKERS ARE VICTORIOUS AT BOWLING

The rather rude punch administered to the Spiders and Corn Shuckers by the Giant Killers and Rexalls respectively in the opening games at the Play House last evening did not phase Captains Nutter and Strimmler worth a cent, for they called their forces instant and came back like Tarzans and put the remaining two games under their banner, which served to make them feel like they had conquered the world and the fullness thereof.

The Spiders and Giant Killers battled on alleys 2 and 3 and the latter's line-up looked rather queer from the front presented last year, when the team simply ran away with the pennant. Deceit by the powers that the Giants were entirely too strong, the team was pruned, grafted and sliced. George Wilhelm, the terror, had been sent to the assistance of the Corn Shuckers who long ago had unfurled the S. O. S. sign. Charles Ross, firing of this part of the country, had slanted to the southland, where he is piloting an S. & W. Molly engine over the N. K. Captain Sheridan had been awarded Edward Campbell and Frank Baker, the "Sleepless Shoeman." However, while his team last two out of three, Captain Sheridan is positive he has a winning aggregation and with just a little more practice the remaining nine teams will have to look a little out.

There is no intention on the part of this great disciple of truth to belittle the victory of Captain Nutter and his bunch of warriors, but they were because they bowled more consistently. Captain Nutter setting the pace and leading off the high average for the evening on his particular battle ground. He was closely pursued by Dr. Tatle, who shot in rather tough luck, getting more spalls than in a battle of Red Haven. Dr. Goodwin was fair for Dr. Goodwin, while Mr. Rawson, after traveling in the lower stages, leaped up in the last game like a comet in a clear sky, getting the high mark of 149, a score he never expects to equal, much less surpass. While accuracy was there or quite near all evening, rating a careful craftsman, came the game and one of which he was exceedingly proud. He declares, however, that he expects to increase his destructiveness from time to time, and will probably be hitting in the clean up position before many days have sun into oblivion.

While Captain Sheridan was high man for his team, nevertheless he is not going to hang his scores on the Christmas tree. Charley Daehler was second best and showed that his eye had not lost its cunning nor his hand its dexterity. Dime Leans and Ed Riekey were almost up for that, Leans getting the hit. Ed Riekey belted like a club that in the opening game and then succeeded, although he was not at all pleased by his effort in the sandy lot zone. Frank Baker, with more than a little of the "Warrior" in him, predicted that Mr. Baker is going to blossom into a wonder of Seymour. Baker is a wonder of Seymour, skill and deadly execution. B. Cranston has been years since the shoeman has seen an alley, let alone fourth a ball. His work last night showed that he had the makings of a great artist and Captain Sheridan would not trade him right now for some of the alleged stars of the league.

Out on alleys 4 and 5 a perfect din of noise was forthcoming at all times, aided and abetted by Captain Nutter of the Spiders, who seemed to be a battery of bug pipes, and whose voice was just as strong at the finish as when he began to unlimber his guns. William Briggs, lead off man for the Corn Shuckers, had a fairly good night, while Salem Shaw was mightily pleased over his work. Ralph Marting had one of his biggest nights and is now being accused of having used Sunnyside as a bowling alley. H. M. Baker showed that his lay off had not increased his effectiveness, while Captain Strimmler was all at sea in the opening game, coming back, however, like a thoroughbred. George Wilhelm was a bear at fair, getting the high average of the evening and helping lead the last two games.

President Keyes, who has been elevated to the important post of lead off man for the Rexalls, was the boss pin tumbler of the evening, gathering five straight strikes in the opening game, and being kept out of the 2nd circle because of a split. Merle Duduit did fine for Merle. Captain Wurster seemed to weaken under the pace of William Hudebeck was on the job and showed up strong for a beginner. His score of 140 has long ago been deposited in the Royal strong box and he expects to exhibit it to his grandchildren. Walter Schuyler was just fair, although he held on his end in great style. Pearl Cranston had a hard time finding the range, but went like a quarter horse, once started. The

HART MAY PLAY IN BIG GAMES

The Ironton Irontonian Saturday morning said:

"Coach Leslie Hart, of the Portsmouth H. S. football team, is a former teammate of 'Shokey' Taylor and was here this week calling on Mr. Taylor. Hart is a grand football player and next year will go to Northwestern University, at Chicago, and very likely will participate in the games of this university against the other Big Nine Conference eleven's."

"Lefty" Hartwig In Colorado

Friends of Edward J. "Lefty" Hartwig will regret to learn that he has been compelled to seek the salubrious climate of Colorado in the hopes of recovering his health, which has not been of the best since last spring. Hartwig has located at Wheat Ridge, Colorado, where he is leading the simple life.

No more popular player ever wore a Portsmouth uniform than Hartwig and it is the sincere wish of his legion of friends here that the glorious climate of Colorado will restore him to his former good health.

Hartwig did not play professionally last year and the year previous to this he was with the Lexington Colts and won many games for the Kentuckians. He was always a hard, conscientious worker and a credit to the game.

His home is in Monroe, Mich., and while he was a member of the local team he won a big percentage of his games.

BETTING FAVORS ARMY IN TODAY'S BIG BATTLE

New York, N. Y., Nov. 27.—Men who govern and guard the nation are here in thousands today to see the annual football game played by West Point and Annapolis. Streets and hotels are gay with the Gold and Gray of the Army and the Blue and Gold of the Navy. Admirals and generals, cabinet members, senators and representatives are as much in evidence as policemen. It is estimated that 25,000 persons came from outside the city to see the contest.

The great double decked stands at the Brush Stadium, where the major league baseball clubs play baseball all summer, began to gather a brilliant throng before two o'clock, the time set for the beginning of the game. The gridiron had been groomed to billiard table smoothness and its condition comforted the adherents of the Navy, who hoped for a fast dry field that would give the Middles opportunity for the best defense against the heavy line plunging tactics expected of the cadets.

Betting favored the Army on its record. Early corners waited expectantly for the arrival of President Wilson and his fiancée, Mrs. Norman Galt, who left Washington this morning. A considerable portion of the president's cabinet, including Secretary Daniels, of the navy, and Secretary Garrison of the war department, arrived here this morning.

The corridors of the two hotels where the rival eleven's made their headquarters were thronged with gray-haired alumni of Annapolis and West Point.

Local Boy Starred

Graves Williams, of this city, star full-back of the University of Pennsylvania football team, had the distinction of making the only touchdown for his team in the game with Cornell Thanksgiving Day. He crossed to the Cornell line in the second quarter after his teammates had executed a number of successful forward passes.

IT'S GOOD ADVERTISING.

Henry Ford's spectacular peace movement in planning to spend a million or so in sending a ship load of more or less eminent persons over to Europe to tell the warring nations to quit fighting and be good, may have been born in sincerity, but still the suspicion will arise that maybe Henry had a large advertising idea in mind. Certainly it is enabling the manufacturer of the most popular low priced automobile on the market to obtain a publicity free of charge that he could not get otherwise for several millions.

As a practical matter, it is hard to see wherein any possible good could come from the proposed junket. It must be made as a private affair as to give it official standing as representing the American government would be to invite embarrassing rebuff. If the junketers ever get anywhere, they will more likely be regarded as meddlers by the officials of the countries in conflict, than be taken seriously. Could you imagine the triumphant German and Austrian rulers listening or proposing terms of peace at this time, other than terms most humiliating to the Allies? Can you imagine the Allies willing to quit now and acknowledge that they have been whipped? In the absence of any decisive battle or battles, does not peace at this time seem an impossibility?

As a matter of fact the American government is keeping in close touch with the situation in Europe. It is possessed of the inside information that Henry Ford, were he ten times more influential than he is, could not get. Whenever the time comes that an intimation from this government to mediate with a view to peace, will not be rebuffed, but will be welcomed, then it is certain that President Wilson will offer the good services of the American government and bend every effort to bring about peace.

In the meantime if Henry Ford is willing to pay the bills and a lot of more or less distinguished persons are willing to be his guests on a pleasant little jaunt over to Europe, we suppose there is no law to prevent it. They will not accomplish anything, and they will make this country somewhat ridiculous in the eyes of Europeans who will believe that it has the sanction of our government, regardless of the facts.

ALL IN TEN MINUTES.

Strange how much strenuousness can be crowded into ten minutes of an ordinary man's life. Here Thursday afternoon we concluded to take a little walk, with the old pumping station as the objective point. Right off the reel we bumped into a gentleman with a playful jag and had a lively scrap with him because his sense of humor prompted him to kick the little bull pup that was trailing at our heels. Next we encountered a gentleman with a boastful jag who was arguing with a woman that it was not necessary for him to go home to keep from being locked up and who insisted upon telling us as we passed that he "was a frien' to everybody" and further that if anybody doubted it he just wanted to say that he "was the best d--d man that ever come out of Kentucky", and he stood ready to prove he was a "frien' to everybody." We accepted his assertions at par and moved on to our destination. Before we got there we were halted by a citizen laboring under intense excitement who simply notified us to tell a certain reporter on our staff that if he ever put his name in the paper again, he "was a-goin' to git H—I knocked outen him." We accepted this commission with enthusiasm and then decided that there was a nite too much war in the air down on the river front for a meek and humble man of peace to be at large.

THIS SINNER'S ON THE ANXIOUS SEAT.

We observe with some degree of interest the tears which are being wept over the lost and utterly undone condition of the newspapers of Pike county by brothers Sibley, of Gallia, and Taylor, of Scioto. One of these days when we have a little spare time, we shall have something to say which we are presumptuous enough to believe may have such a bearing on local newspaper relations as may tend to comfort the weeping Rachels along the Ohio river. Meanwhile, we ask the brethren to pray for us.—Waverly Democrat.

Those joyous remarks upon life in general we occasionally clip from the Ohio State Journal are the product of the brain of "Bob" Ryder. We call him "Bob" because those who know him in real flesh and blood do so and he is a long ways off from Portsmouth. Of course if we were at close range and he invited us out to have a drink of mild non-intoxicating beverage with him, we would call him Mr. Ryder. He is, we are told, tall, fair and handsome as men, and his hair is said to be red. He just jots down a column or two of paragraphs every day for the Journal and spends the rest of his time in dreaming of the life on Broadway and at the Waldorf hotel "at the expense of his kind employer."

From the enthusiasm with which the Republican press is approving the suggestion that Governor Willis accept the invitation to participate in Henry Ford's peace junket we have a suspicion that maybe there is a lingering hope that some of the warring nations of Europe will hamstring the delegation, put it in a detention camp, and keep it there, at least until after the next election.

ANOTHER TRENCH CAPTURED.

ECONOMY.

Economy is the spinal column of business; the backbone of private life. Without economy none can be rich, and with it few will be poor.

Too many people define economy as parsimony. Nothing of the sort. The liberal spender is not necessarily a spendthrift; every purchase he makes may strengthen his own foundations and fill thousands of dinner pails into the bargain. A miser is guilty of the worst extravagance—he blocks out life's sunshine with the cloud of foolish frugality, and wastes his own and his money's usefulness to the world.

Economy means competence—not closeness. It means constructive buying—not destructive bargaining. It means sense—not stinginess.

The niggardly person can never be classed as a true economist. He would "spoil the ship for a ha'p'orth of tar"; and "lose the horse for the sake of a lock."

The true economist knows that "nothing is cheap which is superfluous." With him, price can never constitute sufficient reason for buying that for which he has no need.

But when he does buy—whether it be materials or men—he buys on the principle that the best at the start is the cheapest in the end.

He knows that it is not nearly as hard to earn money as to spend it wisely.

The true economist is essentially a man of rare foresight and intelligence. A slack hand shows weakness—a tight one strength.

And because he is an economist in prosperity—he never fears becoming one in adversity.—From Wise Saws published by Henry G. Thompson & Son.

From the way the Pike county newspapers received the well meant mission of peace financed and fathered by Col. Sibley and ourselves we are justified in feeling about as cheerful as the man who butted in on the fight between a husband and wife. At any rate our Pike county adjective handlers took a day off from screaming at each other in order to toss a few bricks in the direction of Gallipolis and Portsmouth respectively. So far as we are concerned, we don't care what Col. Sibley may do, we have quit on the "peace angel" business. We don't care a continental hang what the Pike county newspapers say about each other hereafter. They can even commit murder and we will not shed any tears of sorrow. So go to it. You have our free and full permission.

It is claimed by many farmers that marketing facilities in Portsmouth are bad. They claim that they cannot get as much here for their produce as they can elsewhere. We are inclined to doubt this as a general proposition, but it is a subject that might well be taken up and considered by some of our commercial bodies. If there is anything wrong it can be corrected. Portsmouth should be the ideal market for all this section, and with the proper effort, this could become an established fact.

BE CAREFUL LITTLE GIRL.

Yes, little girl, that bare throat of yours is very pretty and white and altogether fascinating. The cold wind doesn't even change the color a little bit, nor the snow drops chill the exposed breastbone. The December breezes play about your swan-like neck in middest glee and you look "so cute."

But, say, isn't pneumonia liable to take a fancy to your loveliness and grasp that lovely throat and through it send germs of death to feed upon your lungs? "Death loves a shining mark" and has an eye on your reckless vanity. And before long your friends may be called upon to remark, "How natural she looks!" "She has such a pretty neck!" And your closed eyes will not see nor your deaf ears hear.—Maysville Independent.

Another pathetic little feature of everyday life is the way a woman will stew around and regard her dinner as an absolute failure just because she thinks there ought to have been another lump of butter the size of a walnut in the mashed potatoes, although not another person at the table noticed the omission at all or so much as suspected it.—Ohio State Journal.

Sometimes it pays not to be too neat. A New York man, who had not cleaned up his desk in several years, found some forgotten Bethlehem Steel shares which he sold for $10,000. If he had kept his desk tidy he probably would have unloaded them for about $200.—Indianapolis Star.

Perhaps it was Colonel Roosevelt's remark about "I and my four sons" that gave rise to the story that he started to organize a small army to fight Germany at the time of the Lusitania outrage.—Springfield Republican.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O. O. MCINTYRE.

New York, November 27.—Not all of those fellows who pull the hair-trigger stuff have been corralled by the Broadway managers. There are instances as Dean George Kirchwey, of the Columbia Law School. He might be regarded also as the dean of pedagogic wits.

The other morning one of his classes grew impatient because a lecture ran slightly over the stated hour. There was shuffling of feet, fake coughing and a general manifestation of a desire to get out in the open air.

Finally several students arose and moved toward the clock room. "Wait just a minute," said Prof. Kirchwey. "Don't go just yet. I have a few more pearls to cast."

Brokers are smiling at the statue of George Washington which looks down Broad street from the subtreasury. The sea-fair-trigger stuff have been corralled by the Broadway managers. There are instances as Dean George Kirchwey, of the Columbia Law School. He might be regarded also as the dean of pedagogic wits.

As it happens the sea-fair-trigger stuff have been corralled by the Broadway managers. There are instances as Dean George Kirchwey, of the Columbia Law School. He might be regarded also as the dean of pedagogic wits.

Rube Goldberg, the cartoonist, has a new office boy. He has been on the job just two weeks. A friend breezed in one afternoon recently and inquired how the boy was doing. "Oh fine," was the retort. "He's got things so mixed up that I couldn't possibly get along without him."

Mollie Pancher, of Gates Avenue, Brooklyn, is about to celebrate her golden wedding. Her wedding celebration however is quite different from most others. She has been an invalid for 50 years and says she is wedded to suffering.

Not once in the half century has she stirred from the little white bed in the rear of her home. Years ago it was claimed that she laid in a trance nine years, taking no food and for a period blind and paralyzed, without speech or hearing.

She is a model of cheerfulness and says that if it were not for her happy thoughts and the belief of a future world she could not possibly have stood her long years of suffering.

Here is a nut for the eugenists to crack. Children of foreign born parents in New York, statistics show, have a better chance of surviving the period of infancy than of children of native parents. The infant mortality figures for 1914 show that of every 1,000 children of native white parentage 44 boys and 35 girls do not reach their fifth year, while for the offspring of aliens the figures are only 39 and 32 respectively.

Harry Leon Wilson, who professes Monterey, California, to New York and proves it, by living there the year around, has joined in the revival of the brave songs of an elder day. He remembers when "Jim Fisk Never Went Back on the Pooc" was the most popular song. Just now sentimental songs are an fait. The three of the month deal with sentiment. They are "All I Can Do is Just Love You"; "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You"; and "Mother—a Word That Means the World to Me."

IS THIS A SLAM?

Editor Sibley, of the Gallipolis Tribune appears to be in a mental condition that is giving his friends serious concern. Late, he has been dreaming about angels, gorgeously and gloriously arrayed and when he gave a great shout to attract the attention of Harry Taylor, of Portsmouth, to the wonderful spectacle, they all showed away and disappeared. The end is not far away when an editor gets to dreaming about angels.—Waverly Democrat.

The thing that is worrying us is, does Editor Johnson mean to infer that Sibley's angels refused to associate with us, and if so on what grounds? Of course we know that any angels that would ornament and decorate Sibley's dreams would be mighty exclusive, but still the thought of even an exclusive angel running away when we came bustling up to enjoy the beauty of the spectacle, is a blow that is hard to endure.

There is a man in this county who has a good many gallons of real, genuine, home made sorghum molasses, and he wants a market for it. Anybody know how or where he can dispose of his product. We will pass along the information to him.

Let us suggest to you that you will do well to begin looking for that Christmas present right now. The selection is better, is not pawed over and you will have time to look around so that you will be thoroughly satisfied.

One of our little after-sorrows of the Thanksgiving holiday is that we are worried as to what became of the man who always hitherto got his brief and fleeting but highly satisfactory stay in the spotlight of national publicity by sending a turkey to the White House.

Municipal ownership of public utilities got a jolt when Mayor Baker, of Cleveland, came out in an interview and advocated the sale of the city light plant of that metropolis. It has not paid, and if Cleveland could not make it pay other cities would have small chance of anything but an annual deficit.

That gentleman who prophesied the longest and coldest winter in a century seems to have been just clay like the rest of 'em, including Tom Calvert's pigs, Herk Coriell and Billy Butt-In.

"The $300 automobile is coming," says an exchange. Think of the humiliation it will be to a dignified citizen to find himself climbing a telephone pole to get out of the way of a $300 automobile.—Marion Star.

One of the added pleasures of being invited out to dinner on Thanksgiving day is that you drop the acquaintance of Mr. Turkey right then and there and do not have him served up a la bake, a la hash, etc., for several days.

"My Departed Friend"

The sun was setting with its beautiful benediction on a perfect day, as I stood in a city of the dead. Before me, in its shroud, lay the lifeless form of a very dear friend, one who tried hard, meant well, and failed much in life.

This is true of all humanity. Though their lives are crowned with reward, when health fails, friends forget and life after all ends in failure, so far as this life goes.

In my reverie I asked the question, is this the end? Is this the last of my friend? Nay. In the sun's last rays, as they kissed the western sky and disappeared into the night, I could read in shining letters the birth of another day, brighter and more prosperous than the one just gone.

Near me stood a rose, fading and dying in the chill and hazy autumn, only to be born again with the April shower and the sunny May day to sway in the breeze to the music of the song birds' sweetest lay, more fragrant and beautiful than before.

These two emblems of eternal life convince us of the future life of man and in due time my friend will come forth with all the splendor and perfection of the rose, into that new life that has no failures.

O. T. HEABERLIN.

The Editor's Birthday

Thirty-eight years ago last Saturday the cross-eyed pilot of this column first came to this beautiful little spot, so nicely situated in the midst of the lemon extract distillery, where it is dry both by law and by nature. We didn't have a dollar that October night we struck town, and we are proud to say we have kept our reputation unscathed through all those years—we ain't got a dollar now.—Pewee News.

Hints to Hunters

Deer do not wear red hunting jackets. Rabbits have no horns and do not wear cow bells.

The words "No Trespassing" sometimes mean just what they imply.

If the gun is used as a walking-stick, it should be trailed muzzle down.

The habit of carrying the gun cocked sometimes leads to accidents. If there is any doubt as to the identity of a moving object, the hunter should not shoot before he looks.

Cows, sheep, pigs and poultry are not on the open season list.

There is a better place to make sure the cartridges fit than some field far out in the country.

A hunting knife may be needed in fighting with the wounded rabbit. When shooting into a flock of wild ducks, the hunter should be careful to have his shots scatter so as to hit none but those indicated in the open season list.

In shooting birds on the wing, the law is not specific as to which wing is intended. All holes in the ground are not grondbird barrows. Some may be coal mines.—Moy K. Moulton in Akron Beacon-Journal.

BURGLAR VISITS HOME; WAS FRIGHTENED AWAY

A burglar visited the home of Frank Crabtree, a shoemaker, of 1232 Fifteenth street, Friday night about 10 o'clock, but was discovered and frightened away before he had a chance to help himself to anything of value.

Mr. Crabtree and family were asleep when his wife was aroused by the sound of light footsteps in the kitchen. Looking up she was startled to see a man gazing in from the kitchen door, boldly showing his face three times before she mustered up sufficient courage to make an outcry, whereupon he bolted from the house. Barefoot footprints were found on the kitchen floor and an examination showed that the intruder had gained entrance by raising a rear window. The police were notified and made a thorough search of the premises and immediate neighborhood without result. Mrs. Crabtree was unable to distinguish in the dark whether the man was white or black.

Made Neat Sum

The Ben Hur Marine Club made a neat sum Friday evening from the benefit show given at the Strand theatre on Lawson street. Miss Anna Davis, well known vocalist sang.

HAD SUDDEN ATTACK

Walter Stout of the Pease grocery, Sciotoville, suffered a severe attack of acute indigestion Thursday, it being necessary to call the family physician. He was much better Saturday.

To Elect Tonight

The annual election of officers of Concord Grange will be held this evening at the Grange Hall in Wheelersburg. A large attendance of the members is looked for.

BUSINESS VISITORS

E. F. J. Caddy, a well known Poul Creek citizen, was a business visitor in the city Friday.

George V. Hopkins, of the Hotel Norton, has returned from a visit to the Nihari farm in Clinton county.

William Platt returned Friday from a trip to the horse markets of the northern part of the state.

Five Stands in The Market

The week-end markets in government square are beginning to fall off in attendance. Saturday morning at 7 o'clock found but five stands there.

SIX APPLICATIONS WERE RECEIVED

Six new applications for membership were acted upon at the regular weekly meeting of Portsmouth Court, Tribe of Ben Hur, Friday night.

Was Taken To Mansfield

Edgar Dixon, aged about 25, who was arrested in Portsmouth some two weeks ago and brought back to Adams county by Sheriff Spears on indictment for abandoning a legitimate minor child, was on Saturday sentenced by Judge Stephenson to the State Reformatory for an indefinite period; and on Monday morning was taken to the Mansfield institution by Deputy Sheriff George W. Stewart. — Adams County Record.

Piketon Visitors

E. S. Barnes, a well known Piketon citizen, who just returned from the West, was a business visitor here Friday.

Mayor Has Plan To Stop Taxi Cab War

Mayor Adam Frick believes that one way of ending the clashes between rival taxicab owners and drivers at the N. & W. depot is to limit the number of machines stationed there.

To that end the mayor has instructed Chief B. E. Allen to detail an officer to keep a record of the number of passengers entering taxis for a period of one week. If found that two or three will prove sufficient for each company instead of six or eight only that number will be permitted in the vicinity of the station and the others kept away. The practice of the drivers chasing after passengers as they alight from trains has also been ordered discontinued by the mayor.

The new arrangement called for by the mayor was started Friday night and the patrolman's report showed that the Independent and Interstate companies had six machines each on the job, the former landing a total of 23 passengers as against the Interstate's 22.

WITNESSED MINSTREL SHOW IN PENITENTIARY

Howard Frick, only son of Mayor Adam Frick, who is studying law at the Ohio State University, had the pleasure of witnessing the minstrel show put on exclusively by convicts at the Ohio penitentiary in Columbus Thursday afternoon.

Writing to his father Howard says the performance was the equal of any he ever attended, not excepting Al G. Field's best. The production was staged by Joe Wilson, an old time minstrel favorite, now serving a life sentence for the murder of his wife and whom Howard had previously seen in shows at Keith's theatre in Columbus.

SEEKS MAYOR FOR ADVICE

A woman said to be Mrs. Pearl Carpenter made inquiry of the mayor Friday of the amount that a husband is required to contribute to the support of a wife and child. It developed from her conversation that her husband is employed at Fire Brick, Ohio, and that she herself just came over from Kentucky and hesitated about accompanying him to his place of employment, preferring to remain in the city, she claimed.

The mayor told her that any judge would advise her that she would have to go where her husband could earn a living for his family.

RED MEN NOMINATE

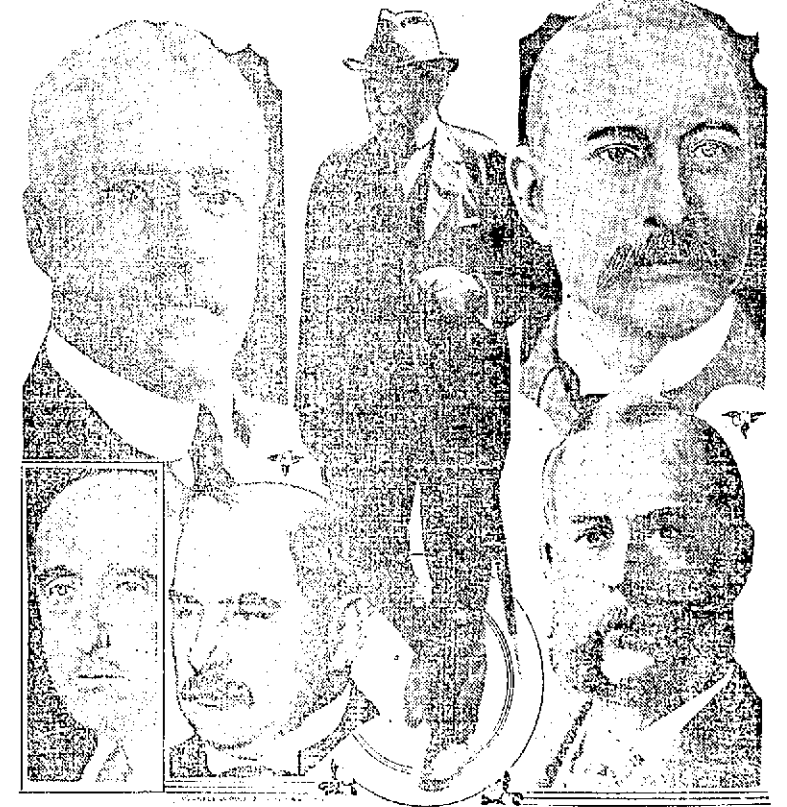

The heavy downpour of rain Friday night failed to dampen the ardor of Red Men and there was a goodly turn out of the warriors held at the weekly pow-wow of Seneca Tribe No. 17, Friday night.

Nomination of officers was held and resulted as follows: Thomas Whitt, prophet; Wayne Allen, sachem; Samuel Newman, senior saganore; George Sachs, junior saganore; John Reeg, chief of record; John Richter, collector of wampum; Charles Heller, keeper of wampum; John Richter, representative to great council; Jasper Newman, alternate. A sumptuous spread was served by William Daehler and Charles Heller at the close of the business session.

FIFTY MILLION DOLLAR COMPANY FORMED TO PUT U. S. IN FOREMOST POSITION AMONG THE WORLD'S TRADING NATIONS

A $50,000,000 company, the purpose of which is to put the United States in a foremost position among trading nations of the world, has just been formed. Founders among its organizers are J. Pierpont Morgan, George F. Baker, Frank A. Vanderlip and James Stillman, New York bankers; James J. Hill, the railroad baron of the northwest, and J. Ogden Armour, one of the leaders of the packing house industry in Chicago.

JACOB METZGER WAS ELECTED TO LEGISLATURE

Older Portsmouth resident will remember Jacob Metzger, formerly of this city, now located in Bellevue, Ky.

At the recent election Mr. Metzger was elected as representative to the state legislature from Campbell county, the only Republican candidate who was elected on that entire ticket in that county. He will represent the 53rd district.

For years Mr. Metzger was one of the most efficient members of the local fire department.

His son, Edward Metzger, frequently comes to Portsmouth as traveling salesman, selling the Counselor cigar. Both father and son have a host of friends in this city, who will be pleased to learn of the elder Metzger's successful dip into politics.

ACTRESS SPRAINS ANKLE, PLACE FILLED BY MOTHER

Mrs. Harris and daughter "Dainty" Dixie Harris, actresses, who are with the "Office Girls" in Cincinnati are close friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thomas of Moulton Place.

Miss Harris plays the star role in the production and while off the stage Wednesday had the misfortune to sprain her ankle. The mother quickly slipped into the star's makeup and costume and filled her part, the audience not noticing the change. It was the first time Mrs. Harris appeared before the footlights in a big production.

SINGERS URGED TO ATTEND

All members of the choir of All Saints church, and all who have at any time been members, are reminded that one of the indispensable adjuncts to a successful mission is good singing by a large chorus choir and are urged to attend as many of the week-night meetings as possible.

The services commence at 7:30 p. m., sharp, and members of the choir should be in the chapel not later than 7:15 p. m. each evening. The music used will be such as all are familiar with and will consist for the most part of well known hymns.

Waterworks Bond Ordinance Defeated

Fronton, O., Nov. 27.—The water works bond ordinance went down to defeat last night at the regular meeting of the city council, getting only three votes to four against it.

This ordinance, which called for an issue of $250,000 of water works bonds originally had the support of five members of council but at the final test, Messrs. James and Hemminger, who have supported the proposition all along, voted against it. Mr. James gave as his reason for the action, not opposition to the proposition but that the incoming council should dispose of the proposition inasmuch as the bonds could not be marketed before the old council finished its work and he was opposed to any administration building the water works without the aid of a commission.

Plant To Resume

The Ironton Irontonian, Saturday morning said:

"The Excelsior Shoe company will start its factory in this city next week.

"The foreman of the fitting department, E. E. McKee, will come here Monday from Portsmouth to make arrangements for the starting of the factory.

S. MARY MAGDALENE GUILD TO SING

The Guild of St. Mary Magdalene, one of the junior guilds of All Saints church, will sing an offertory anthem at the Choral Eucharist on Sunday, the first day of the mission. Nichol's well known anthem, "Nearer My God to Thee" will be rendered by the following members of the Guild: Misses Winnie Krauser, Katherine Hall, Mabel Shaw, Anna Marie Capehart, Ida Faivre, Harriet Thomas and Dorothy Varner. Mrs. Samuel Rice, the talented organist and choir director of the church, has spent considerable time in preparing the guild for this musical effort and is greatly pleased with the ability displayed by the young artists.

At the evening services Miss Gertrude Schmidt, soprano soloist, will sing. Lovers of good music will do well to visit All Saints church on any Sunday, where the music of the Episcopal church, which is without a rival for beauty, is well rendered by the chorus choir, reinforced by some of the best solo voices in the city.

WOODMEN PLANNING TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

River City Camp, No. 29, Woodmen of the World, will celebrate the twentieth anniversary of its founding on the evening of December 17th with appropriate exercises.

A committee was appointed, headed by Jacob Kah, a charter member, as chairman, with the following other members: C. C. Milstead, William Hyland, Geo. W. Clifford and Roy McElhane.

Prominent Woodmen from all over the state will be secured to deliver addresses. Among those being considered are George A. Breiel, of Cincinnati; Col. Louis Stoffel and William Reuss, of Cleveland; and George A. Ditty, of Columbus.

Three candidates were admitted into the mysteries of the order in the usual impressive manner. The three new members are: C. M. Meyoung, C. Baskett and Scott Daneau. The applications of four others were favorably considered.

The meeting next Friday evening will be featured by the nomination of officers for the coming year.

Secretaryship Of M. W. of A. Sought By Many Candidates

Six candidates are actively in the race for clerk of Portsmouth Camp, No. 3993, Modern Woodmen of America, to succeed L. A. Zucker, city auditor elect, whose successor will be elected next Friday evening at the annual election. The contest is a spirited one, although friendly, and the candidates are affecting all of the methods of political candidates in their effort to line up sufficient votes to land the office.

The six candidates who are in the field are: H. E. Puckett, captain of the degree team; Ralph Ruggles, Beaver Dadds, J. R. Hooper, Wesley Bauer and W. T. Mackey. The winner will have to secure the majority of all votes cast, and several ballots may have to be taken before the race is decided.

Eugene Pierce is tipped as the successful candidate for consul, the presiding officer, to succeed T. C. Patterson, the present incumbent, who has held that office for two successive years.

A luncheon will be served at the close of the election, a committee consisting of Eugene Pierce, Don Jewell and J. R. Hooper, having been named last evening to have charge of the arrangements.

One candidate, William Odell, was initiated into the order last evening.

The members were entertained after the meeting with a piano selection by W. F. Smith, a visiting brother of Cincinnati.

It was announced during the meeting that W. F. Farrar, of Star Yard, a tubercular victim, would be sent to the Woodmen Sanitarium at Colorado Springs, Colorado, for treatment.

"Silvers" Leading

The Daughters of America next Friday evening. The leaders of the membership contest teams made reports. The Silvers have forged ahead of the Golds, the Silvers having 245 points and the Golds 235 points. The membership contest has nine weeks to selection of officers will be held.

The Brotherhood

Members of the Brotherhood in the rector's office on Fourth street, next the chapel. Sunday is also the first Sunday in the second year of the history of this popular class of men. Now is the chance for you fellows who got out of the way of attending, the Brotherhood to get right back into harness. Begin the new year right. All adult men are eligible for membership of the Brotherhood whether members of the church or not.

IDLEWILD NOTES

Ground has been broken and the foundation begun by M. D. Mathias for a modern residence on the corner of Jordan and Gallia avenues, in Idlewild. M. H. Holsinger has the contract for the house complete, while J. C. Harris is doing the brick work.

Mr. Harris also has the contract for a second residence at the corner of Jordan and Millbrook avenues, Idlewild, which will be begun just as soon as the first one is well under way.

It is stated that John Salmanski will erect a cottage in the Spring on one of the three lots which he recently purchased at the corner of Turley and Moorfield avenues.

Miss Anna Scott has purchased the handsome little brick residence with five rooms, bath, attic, cellar under the whole house, water, gas, electric light and sanitary sewer.

SKATERS ADOPT THE CHIN CHIN COLLAR

The longer I live the more deeply am I convinced that that which makes the difference between one man and another, between the weak and the powerful, the great and insignificant, is energy, invincible determination, a purpose once formed, and then death or victory. This quality will do anything that is to be done in the world.—Buxton.
